List of competent authorities designated for the purposes of Regulation (EU) No. 236/2012 on short selling and certain aspects of credit default swaps (Short Selling Regulation - SSR)

Article 32 SSR: " Each Member State shall designate one or more of the competent authorities for the purpose of this Regulation.

Where a Member State designates more than one competent authority, it shall clearly determine their respective roles and it shall designate the authority to be responsible for coordinating the cooperation and the exchange of information with the Commission, ESMA and the competent authorities of the other Member States.

Member States shall inform the Commission, ESMA and the competent authorities of the other Member States of those designations."
