1989 ANNUAL REPORT
Saint Raphael's

Saint Raphael's

1450 Chapel St., New Haven, CT 06511

1989 AT A GLANCE

Graduates of the Take Heart cardiac rehabilitation program reunited to celebrate their renewed good health.

Digging in to break ground for the New Haven Medical Hotel are, from left, Ed Fusco, president, Fusco Corp.; Dr. Alvin Greenberg, Temple Medical Hotel Management Group; Sister Anne Virginie; Richard J. Grossi, president and CEO, United Illuminating Company; former Mayor Biagio DiLieto; and Rev. John Hay of United Church on the Green.

- Cardio-Thoracic Intensive Care Unit opens, enhancing Saint Raphael's high tech heart facilities with a 16-bed, state-of-the-art post-surgical unit. The CTICU is the largest dedicated unit of its kind in Connecticut.
- Saint Raphael Healthcare System is streamlined—corporate restructuring better prepares Saint Raphael's for the future.
- Saint Raphael is one of 120 hospitals nationwide to get newest high tech heart/lung machine.
- Saint Raphael's again earns maximum accreditation by Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO).
- Saint Raphael employees pledge more than $60,000 in donations to community agencies.
- Hospital launches national drug trial for stroke victims.
- Saint Raphael's Senior Assessment Center opens, providing overall assessments of elderly people and offering help to remain independent and healthy.
- Pregnancy Health Line launched to curb newborn deaths—Saint Raphael's and others in community offer help.
- CareCard senior membership roster grows to more than 1,500. Programs and services enhanced to help seniors live healthier lifestyles.
- Saint Raphael's goes smoke free. Cleaner indoor air benefits patients, visitors, employees, physicians, volunteers, and all who enter our facilities.
- Hospital kitchen makes 1,200 dinners for area tornado victims.
- Optifast opens at Saint Raphael's. Hundreds of area residents lose thousands of pounds and begin healthier lives and lifestyles.
- New Haven Medical Hotel breaks ground—completion date set for November 1990.
- Saint Raphael Healthcare System and Capone Development, Inc., continue to market Halecroft of Chesire, a secure, independent, and gracious option for seniors seeking a continuing care retirement community.
