

In February 2022, using the Class Climate platform, we investigated reasons why students, staff and faculty at Andrews University received or did not receive the COVID-19 vaccine. Three hundred ninety-four (394) participated: students (47.4%), staff and faculty (48.4%), and others (4.1%). Significant differences in reasons were found between vaccinated and unvaccinated.