The Academic Procession

The procession begins with the entrance of the candidates for degrees. Led by faculty marshals, the candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, both the Teaching Program and the Liberal Arts Program, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Liberal Studies, Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Science enter in groups, representing each of the undergraduate colleges. They are followed by the candidates for the highest degrees.

Students wearing a bronze medallion are those graduating Summa Cum Laude (with highest honors), which represent the top 3% of each college by grade point average; or those graduating students receiving a Purple and Old Gold Award, given to those students who have excelled in scholarship or who have shown conspicuous achievement in particular areas.

The procession continues with representatives of the faculty.

The president's party forms the final section of the academic procession. Headed by the commencement marshal, it includes the president; members of the Board of Regents, State of Iowa; administrative officers; the academic deans; and honored guests.

The individuals leading the procession of the graduates, the faculty and the president's party carry a mace which is a symbol of office. Those individuals are the student body president, the chair of the faculty and the university commencement marshal. Over long tradition, a mace is a symbol of authority and official celebration. The university mace is the largest of the three maces and it embodies the history and dignity of the entire university. The president wears a jeweled "Chain of Office" symbolizing the wearer is the leader of the institution. The silver chain includes links with the names of previous presidents of the institution, as well as previous names of the university.

The academic costumes worn trace their origin to the Middle Ages when long-sleeved hooded gowns were necessary for warmth in the unheated stone colleges. Over the centuries, much diversity occurred, and to bring some order, in the United States in 1894 an intercollegiate system of academic costume was agreed on, now adhered to by American institutions. According to this code, both the styling and colors of the regalia have significance.

The design of the gown indicates the degree. The bachelor's is a simple gown with a full sleeve. The master's gown is much like it except for the long sleeve which hangs loose. The doctoral gown is fuller and more elaborate. It has velvet edging and three velvet stripes on the full sleeve. The color of this velvet may be black or in the color appropriate to the degree.

Hoods, which are worn over the gowns, are similar for all degrees, although differing slightly in length. The candidates for the bachelor's degrees usually do not wear the hood. The hood has a velvet edging which indicates the area of the degree, and the inside or lining of the hood is satin in the colors of the college or university granting the degree.

A partial list of the degree colors to be found on the edge of the hood or the trimming on the doctoral gown is as follows:

- Apricot - Nursing
- Blue, dark - Philosophy
- Blue, light - Education
- Brown - Fine Arts
- Citron - Social Science
- Copper - Economics
- Drab - Business
- Green - Medicine
- Green Sage - Physical Education
- Lemon - Library Science
- Maize - Agriculture
- Maroon - Family
- Orange - Engineering
- Pink - Music
- Purple - Law
- Scarlet - Theology
- White - Arts and Letters
- Yellow Golden - Science and Consumer Sciences

Lux Service Award

The University of Northern Iowa Lux Service Award is presented by the Office of the Dean of Students annually to undergraduate students who best represent the ideal of service to the university community.

The honor is conferred in the spirit of keeping the light of service to others burning bright at UNI. The name of the award, Lux, is from the university's official seal that features a burning lamp of knowledge and the Latin word for light.

Congratulations to the 2023 Lux Service Award Recipients:

Nixson Benitez

Nixson Benitez is a senior communications major from Des Moines, Iowa, graduating in May. He has been an active member of the UNI community, but has focused his time, effort and energy as a leader on building The Northern Iowan, our student newspaper. When asked about a challenge he has encountered as a student leader, Nixson stated, "Always tell the truth. It can be hard. But, as a student leader, tell the truth and be transparent about your own personal life and when you need help." Nixson has held the titles of Newman Civic Fellow and Executive Editor to name a few. Nixson's lasting legacy will include the ways in which he has rebuilt, or maybe the correct word is built, The Northern Iowan, specifically the addition of a Spanish column and a social media team.

Esha Jayswal

Esha Jayswal is a double major in Accounting and Economics, from Independence, Iowa, graduating in May. She has been actively involved in Northern Iowa Student Government, Business Student Ambassadors, Accounting Club, and the UNI Business Presidents' Council. Esha shared how her involvement experiences as a student helped her find her voice. Never wanting to draw attention to herself, her experiences taught her to stand up for a matter of fairness and how to speak truth to power as a female in a male dominated field. Esha led a group of her peers as the first female team lead to win the regional Deloitte Tax Case Competition and compete at the national level.

Leila Mašinović

Leila Mašinović is a Bachelor of Liberal Studies major from Waterloo, Iowa graduating in May. She has been an active leader in the Muslim Student Association and Northern Iowa Student Government and has served on numerous committees and councils, while participating in countless programs and efforts in support of student success. While some may be quick to assume Leila's legacy would be tied solely to her work with Northern Iowa Student Government, the selection committee was impressed with her work as President of the Muslim Student Association working with Faculty Senate leadership to have religious observances added to the Class Attendance and Make-Up Work policy.
