Senior Inducted into Honors Societies

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. – Kristen Hosack, Class of 2011, was inducted into the Illinois Wesleyan chapters of the Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi honors societies in April.

Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's oldest academic honors society, is an undergraduate honors organization fostering and recognizing excellence in the liberal arts and sciences. Phi Beta Kappa, originally founded in 1776, established a chapter at Illinois Wesleyan in 2001.

Phi Kappa Phi, a national honor society that recognizes outstanding undergraduate and graduate students, along with outstanding faculty, professional staff and alumni, was established at Illinois Wesleyan in 1922. Its mission is to recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education and to engage the community of scholars in service to others.

Hosack, a graduate of Bloomington High School and a Spanish and history double major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hosack of Bloomington.
