Cobras still struggling through season

By Joel Osinga
PROSPECTUS SPORTS WRITER

The Parkland's men's basketball team opened the week of the 18th playing 15th ranked Moberly Area Community College in Moberly, Missouri on Tuesday.

Perhaps still a bit sluggish after a long Christmas vacation, the Cobras began the game by falling behind by 20 points in the first 10 minutes of the game, never igniting the spark to take the lead for the rest of the night. "It's unfortunate that we got off to such a bad start", said head Coach Alan Nudo. Unfortunate indeed.. Minus that 20-point lead that shot Moberly ahead and there would have been quite a game.

However, when the final buzzer sounded, it was Moberly over Parkland 97-76. The high points for Parkland were Cortez Bond's 20 points, who was also 3 for 4 from behind the arc, followed by Jason Sloan, who added 14 and Courtney Huff with 13.

On Thursday, Parkland rolled into Danville to take on the Jaguars where the same fate would befall them. It's not that Parkland was that bad. It's that DACC was that good. The Jaguars broke Parkland's press, shot 56 percent, and outrebounded the Cobras 21-11.

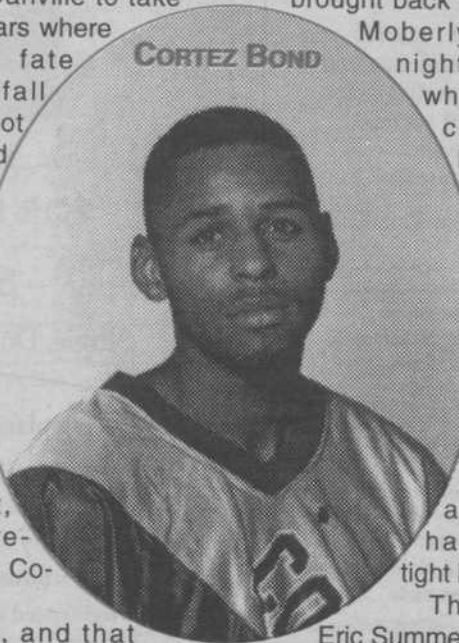

Oh yeah, and that was the first half. They came out in the second by hitting four 3-pointers in a row, not to mention making the first eight shots of the half.

With 10 minutes left on the clock, Danville had gone on a 21-1 run and ended up routing the Cobras 88-65. The game brought back memories of Moberly, just two nights prior, where the run came at the beginning of the first half rather than the second. Again, just like Moberly, knock off that 20 point run and it would have been a tight battle.

The Jaguars' Eric Summers attributed DACC's win to Parkland's lethargic defense. "They seemed kind of tired", said Summers. Yeah, that's what an 8-hour roundtrip to Missouri can do to a team. Ryan Martin
