CONFIRMATION BY THE CONGREGATION

Dearly beloved, as representatives of the various congregations participating in this service of Ordination, you have witnessed the examination of the candidate. The procedure to the Ordination now awaits only your confirmation. As an indication of that confirmation will you repeat after me:

We, who are members of First Christian Church,
(Ewing Christian Church) accept Mary Lake into the Christian ministry. We will try to help her succeed in her high calling. We pledge to her our love, our prayers, and our steadfast cooperation.

The candidate will now kneel for the prayer of Ordination.

LAYING ON OF HANDS

In keeping with apostolic custom, the ministers and elders appointed to do so will lay their hands upon the head of the candidate whom we now ordain.

EXAMINATION OF THE CANDIDATE

Rev. Elizabeth Rae Landolt

Mary Lake, in the light of all the demands that shall be made upon you, and in keeping with the high standards that Christ has set for those who would interpret His message to the world, I ask, "Do you desire to be ordained to the ministry of the gospel?"

Reply: I do.

M/ Do you reaffirm your faith in Jesus Christ as the Son of God and your loyalty to him as your Lord and Savior, and do you determine to submit your life and ministry to his Spirit?

Reply: I do.

M/ Do you affirm your belief in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as containing the word of God?

Reply: I do.

M/ Do you affirm your determination to give your life to the ministry of Jesus Christ, whatever difficulties may lie in your way?

Reply: I do.

M/ Do you promise to be diligent in your study of the Scriptures, prayerful in your attitude toward God, gentle, patient, and faithful in your ministrations to the people, friendly in your relations with other Christians and in your feelings and actions toward all people?

Reply: I do.

M/ You will repeat after me:

"I Mary Lake, dedicate myself, body, mind and spirit, to the Christian ministry. Through study and prayer, I will ever prepare myself for this high calling, I will seek to exalt righteousness and rebuke all evil, to minister to the sick and comfort those in trouble, to set a worthy example before all and to serve people in the spirit of Jesus Christ my Lord."

Rev. Alex Conyers - Lay Minister, First Christian Church

BENEDICTION Brother Ruley

ADJOURN FOR BASKET DINNER

upon the singing of hymns. He said: "Hymns directly address God in praise... The sole difference between singing and praying is the quality of air, or the sound employed in the pronunciation of words.. If moments devoted to religious controversy and bickerings about the word to not profit were redeemed to praise of the Lord, our lives would be more fruitful in good works and much happier than they are."

SCRIPTURE

The Scripture read in today's service is from Alexander Campbell's translation of the New Testament, which he called Living Oracles.

INTERPRETATION OF SERVICE

Through this service we seek to reenact the worship experience of our forefathers 100-150 years ago. The setting is enhanced by some in period dress, terminology of yesteryears (Brother and Sister), the absence of the organ, acapella singing, and a simple, informal order of service. In those days services began with a period of Christian Fellowship, a time for informal handshaking and greetings to one another. Thus we begin today.

Our forefathers of the faith stressed the priesthood of all believers. To symbolize this they placed the communion table on floor level with the worshippers. Lay leadership participated from the congregation rather than from the chancel as today. That was before the day of organized choirs, so today our choir is seated with the congregation.

To symbolize oneness in Christ our forefathers partook from one loaf and one cup during the communion service. Out of consideration for today's changing views of hygiene deacons will direct those communing to come to the communion table by rows via the center aisles. Each communicant will break bread from loaves of unleavened bread, ~~drink from the cups,~~ and return to their seats via the outer aisles for the conclusion of the service. (This would not have been done by our forefathers.)

May this service remind us of the rich heritage that is ours and the eternal presence of the living God.

HYMNS

The hymns used in the service today are hymns that were in Alexander Campbell's hymnbook, first published in 1823. Campbell laid great emphasis
