Munster High School Graduate Receives CPA Society Scholarship

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. –Jeffrey Marinier, 2006 graduate of Munster High School in Munster, Ind., has been awarded the Illinois Certified Public Accountant (CPA) Society scholarship and will intern with Ernst and Young this spring.

Marinier completed the scholarship application process, which included submitting a resume, a transcript, detailed financial information, two personal statements and two letters of recommendation written by David Willis, associate professor of business administration, and Warren Kistner, director of the Hart Career Center.

At Ernst and Young in Chicago, Marinier's internship will include assurance and auditing. He will meet with clients, verifying their financial statements.
