Seventh Annual Humanism in Medicine Last Lecture Series

Discoveries Along the Road Less Traveled

Sheryl A. Pfeil, MD, FACP, AGAF

Dr. Sheryl Pfeil, MD, FACP, AGAF, is a professor in The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center Division of Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Nutrition where she has been a faculty member for the last 30 years. She is a graduate of The Ohio State University College of Medicine and completed her residency and fellowship training at University Hospitals in Cleveland, Ohio. As a gastroenterologist, she has been a dedicated clinician and was inducted into the Mazzaferri Ellison Society of Master Clinicians in 2019. She currently serves on the governing board of the American Gastroenterological Association.

Pfeil's passion for teaching has led to many education roles. She serves as the medical director for the Clinical Skills Education and Assessment Center and leads gastroenterology teaching for second year medical students. She received the Distinguished Educator Award from the College of Medicine in 2001, the Master Teacher Award in 2013 and the Lifetime Achievement Award in 2020. She is past president of the board of directors of Alpha Omega Alpha national honor medical society.

Support for this special event is provided by the Medical Heritage Center, the Courage to Teach Board, the Linda C. Stone, MD, Program for Humanism and the Arts in Medicine and The Ohio State University College of Medicine.
