

ALT Learning Environment Review SIG (LERSIG)

This new Special Interest Group (SIG) has been established in November 2009 under the ALT Special Interest Group Policy (see http://www.alt.ac.uk/docs/special_interest_groups_20050623.pdf ~ 20kb PDF).

Initial remit of LERSIG:

To identify and share up-to-date information and guidance on:

- the most effective ways to review the provision of large-scale and institution-wide learning environments with a particular focus on virtual learning environments (VLEs),
- decision-making and future planning, in relation to the ways that institutional IT and online learning systems can best support student learning,
- change and implementation of new or revised learning environments (eg VLEs, CAA, e-Portfolios, portals, etc).

The initiating SIG Officers are:

Carol Higgison, Professor Peter Hartley, Maureen Readle – University of Bradford. Contact C.Higgison@bradford.ac.uk .
