On The Cover

Pulliam Hall

Pulliam Hall is located at Southern Illinois University Carbondale, the flagship campus of the Southern Illinois University system. Founded in 1869, SIUC has a Carnegie distinction of Doctoral/Extensive. Guiding the University's development is Southern at 150: Building Excellence Through Commitment. The primary goal of this strategic plan is to have SIUC rank among the nation's top 75 public research institutions by the time the University celebrates its 150th anniversary in 2019.

Pulliam Hall was completed in 1951 and housed the University School, offering early childhood education through high school. Originally called the Model School, University School was launched when Southern Illinois Normal University was established in 1869. University School closed in 1971.

From its inception as a small teachers college, Southern Illinois University Carbondale has been dedicated to the preparation of teachers for the schools and classrooms of Illinois. This tradition continued with the creation of the College of Education in 1944. Today, the College of Education and Human Services prepares not only teachers and administrators for the public schools, but also professionals for a wide array of careers in such areas as athletic training, behavior analysis and therapy, communication disorders and sciences, counselor education, educational measurement and statistics, public health, recreation administration, therapeutic recreation, rehabilitation services, and workforce development.

The College of Education and Human Services includes the Departments of Curriculum and Instruction, Educational Administration and Higher Education, Educational Psychology and Special Education, Health Education and Recreation, Physical Education, Workforce Education and Development, the Rehabilitation Institute, and the School of Social Work. In 2019 the College will celebrate 150 years of service to the people of Illinois. The College is proud of its talented and dedicated faculty and students as well as more than 50,000 alumni across the state, nation, and world.

Call for Manuscripts

The Mid-Western Educational Researcher is a scholarly journal that publishes research-based articles addressing a full range of educational issues. The journal also publishes literature reviews, theoretical and methodological discussions that make an original contribution to the research literature, and feature columns. There are four issues of the journal published annually.

The journal is accepting manuscripts for review and possible publication. Manuscripts are submitted to blind reviews by three researchers with knowledge of the literature in the appropriate area. The editors will review the manuscript and make the final decision. The review process requires approximately four months.

Manuscripts are accepted from faculty, students, and professionals working in educational or non-educational settings. Membership in the MWERA is not required in order to submit a manuscript for review. The editors encourage the submission of revised papers that have been presented at the annual meetings of the MWERA, AERA, and other professional organizations.

Manuscripts may be submitted for review as hard copy or electronically.

Hard Copy Submission. Submit four (4) copies of the manuscript with a cover letter to Deborah Bainer Jenkins, Co-Editor. Manuscripts should conform to the style and format described in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 5th edition. All manuscripts should be typed, double-spaced, and on 8½ x 11 paper with 1½ inch margins on all sides. An abstract of less than 100 words should accompany the manuscript. The author's name, contact information, and affiliation should appear on the title page only. Submissions typically are less than 20 pages in length. A disk file (3½ inch diskette, MS Word) is also required with the submission.

Electronic Submission. Submit the manuscript to Deborah Bainer Jenkins, Co-Editor, at mer@westga.edu as an e-mail attachment. Indicate in the subject line that this is a MWERJ manuscript. As with hard copy, the manuscript should conform to APA style, be produced in MS Word, and be limited to 20 pages, including abstract and references, and contain full contact information for the author(s).

All manuscripts, whether submitted in hard copy or electronically, will be acknowledged upon receipt. Please note that authors are responsible to submit manuscripts that are free of grammatical and mechanical errors. The editors reserve the right to make minor modifications in order to produce a more concise and clear article.

Questions regarding the journal or the submission of feature columns should be directed to the co-editors listed below.
