MID-WESTERN EDUCATIONAL RESEARCHER

• Official Publication of the Mid-Western Educational Research Association •

University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

On The Cover

In addition to providing excellence in teacher education for the schools of Southeastern Wisconsin, the School of Education at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee provides a wide range of professional training programs. The school enrolls about 3000 students with about one third at the graduate level. The school offers a Ph.D. in Urban Education with specializations in Administrative Leadership, Art Education, Counseling Psychology, Curriculum and Instruction, Educational Psychology, Exceptional Education and School Psychology.

On the cover: The School of Education is housed in Enderis hall. In the foreground is "Earth Mother" created in 1969 from welded aluminum by Steven Jay Urry.

Information for Contributors to the Mid-Western Educational Researcher

The Mid-Western Educational Researcher accepts research-based manuscripts that would appeal to a wide range of readers. All materials submitted for publication must conform to the language, style, and format of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 4th ed., 1994 (available from Order Department, American Psychological Association, P.O. Box 2710, Hyattsville, MD 20784).

Four copies of the manuscript should be submitted typed double-spaced (including quotations and references) on 8 1/2 x 11 paper. Only words to be italicized should be underlined. Abbreviations and acronyms should be spelled out when first mentioned. Pages should be numbered consecutively, beginning with the page after the title page. Manuscripts should be less than 20 pages long. An abstract of less than 100 words should accompany the manuscript.

The manuscript will receive blind review from at least two professionals with expertise in the area of the manuscript. The author's name, affiliation, mailing address, telephone number, e-mail address (if available), should appear on the title page only. Efforts will be made to keep the review process to less than two months. The editors reserve the right to make minor changes in order to produce a concise and clear article.

The authors will be consulted if any major changes are necessary.

Manuscripts are now being accepted for review and possible publication in 1997 and beyond by
