On the Cover

Committed to excellence throughout its history, Indiana University's School of Education continues its tradition of leadership in teaching, research, and service. Ranked among the major schools of education in the nation, it is a leader in the preparation of educators for a broad spectrum of professional responsibilities in classrooms, laboratories, and administrative offices. In rankings of research productivity and quality of academic programs, Indiana University's School of Education is acclaimed as one of the foremost educational institutions in the world.

Founded in 1908, the Indiana University School of Education now occupies the Wendell W. Wright Education Building, a new structure designed to demonstrate users of multimedia technology in teaching and learning. The Wright Education Building has been equipped through the generosity of AT&T, Thomson Consumer Electronics, Steelcase Inc., and the School's alumni and friends. Indiana University's School of Education is a leader in the use of distance education, interactive television instruction, and technological innovation.

Information for Contributors to the Mid-Western Educational Researcher

The Mid-Western Educational Researcher accepts research-based manuscripts that would appeal to a wide range of readers. All materials submitted for publication must conform to the language, style, and format of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 4th ed., 1994 (available from Order Department, American Psychological Association, P.O. Box 2710, Hyattsville, MD 20784).

Four copies of the manuscript should be submitted typed double-spaced (including quotations and references) on 8 1/2 x 11 paper. Only words to be italicized should be underlined. Abbreviations and acronyms should be spelled out when first mentioned. Pages should be numbered consecutively, beginning with the page after the title page. Manuscripts should be less than 20 pages long. An abstract of less than 100 words should accompany the manuscript.

The manuscript will receive blind review from at least two professionals with expertise in the area of the manuscript. The author's name, affiliation, mailing address, telephone number, e-mail address (if available), should appear on the title page only. Efforts will be made to keep the review process to less than four months. The editors reserve the right to make minor changes in order to produce a concise and clear article.

The authors will be consulted if any major changes are necessary.

Manuscripts should be sent with a cover letter to:
