The Newark Campus, The Ohio State University at Newark

On the Cover

Students from Central Ohio Technical College and The Ohio State University at Newark share the facilities that comprise the Newark Campus. The 155-acre campus, which features four academic buildings, contain all the necessary components for this unique partnership. A library, recreational facilities, child development center, and classrooms and laboratories that utilize all the latest technologies are just some of the features within the Newark Campus which assist in providing students with a well-rounded education. The campus also offers the students a variety of programs to meet the social, recreational and family life needs.

The Ohio State University at Newark offers one to four years of study toward most of Ohio State's 220 undergraduate majors in business, art, science, humanities and the pre-professional areas of allied medicine, dentistry, law, medicine, nursing, optometry, pharmacy and veterinary medicine. The campus also provides baccalaureate and master's degree programs in Early and Middle Childhood Education. Selected graduate-level courses in business administration, social work and education are also offered. The Associate of Arts Degree is awarded to students who have completed two years of specified study.

Central Ohio Technical College offers programs that provide a blend of technological and theoretical instruction designed to meet the needs of area employers. The college grants associate degrees in Nursing (RN), Radiographic Technology (RT), Diagnostic Medical Sonography, Physical Therapist Assistant, Early Childhood Development, Human Services, business Management, Accounting, Computer Programming, Office Administration, Criminal Justice, Drafting and Design, Electronic Engineering and Electromechanical Engineering.

Information for Contributors to the Mid-Western Educational Researcher

The Mid-Western Educational Researcher accepts research-based manuscripts that would appeal to a wide range of readers. All materials submitted for publication must conform to the language, style, and format of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 4th ed., 1994 (available from Order Department, American Psychological Association, P.O. Box 2710, Hyattsville, MD 20784).

Four copies of the manuscript should be submitted typed double-spaced (including quotations and references) on 8 1/2 x 11 paper. Only words to be italicized should be underlined. Abbreviations and acronyms should be spelled out when first mentioned. Pages should be numbered consecutively, beginning with the page after the title page. Manuscripts should be less than 20 pages long. An abstract of less than 100 words should accompany the manuscript.

The manuscript will receive blind review from at least two professionals with expertise in the area of the manuscript. The author's name, affiliation, mailing address, telephone number, e-mail address (if available), should appear on the title page only. Efforts will be made to keep the review process to less than four months. The editors reserve the right to make minor changes in order to produce a concise and clear article.

The authors will be consulted if any major changes are necessary.

Manuscripts should be sent with a cover letter to:
