

Loading Study 1

- Normal noteheads are fingerings held until end of phrase/slur.
Only tongue the normal noteheads.
- 'Ping' noteheads are 'loading' holes/keys added to the initial fingering.
e.g. see fingerings examples in first system.
- Loading holes/keys are kept pressed until end of phrase/slur.
- Dynamics should be quiet-ish throughout.

Scott McLaughlin

fast

Clarinet in B \flat

Cl.

Cl.

Cl.

Cl.

Cl.

* keep F depressed while playing E

[the fingering is important here, not the pitch]

multiphonic?

[these two are the same fingering, just the B \flat trill key alone]

21

Cl.

25

Cl.

multiphonic?

29

Cl.

33

Cl.

multiphonic?

multiphonic?

37

Cl.

multiphonic?

multiphonic?

multiphonic?

multiphonic? (short)