ISMAR SCHORSCH, Ph.D.

Chancellor, Jewish Theological Seminary of America and Herman Abramowitz Professor of Jewish History

"Today, for too many [American] Jews, a preoccupation with self and a secular frame of mind militate against any sense of personal, [religious] obligation ... If we can saturate our homes with echoes of eternity, our children will naturally absorb Judaism as ... a moral compass, a medium of expression, and a source of pride."
