The Gratory

June 28. 1875

Madam

If I did not answer your letter, and I cannot tell whether I did or did not, it was because I did not know what answer to make to it, and because I have few more letters than I am able to answer, and because circumstances have lately been dered me from answering letters,

"Mr Charles Lloyd and his Sisters."

I hope you will take this as my excuse, and be sure it's my silence does not arise from any want of respect for you

I am, Madam,

Your faithful sonⁱⁿ

J. Shutt Newman

I know nothing whatever of any

If I did, I would give you information about them.
