GREETINGS:

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 23rd Annual Miss Prairie View A&M University Scholarship Pageant. This special event features some of Prairie View A&M University's finest talent.

The Miss Prairie View A&M University Pageant is a treasured tradition of the university that affords young ladies an opportunity to develop personally and professionally as they are judged on the format of the Miss America Pageant. Tonight, we are celebrating our 22nd anniversary of affiliation with the Miss Texas and Miss America Program and we are proud of the young ladies who have represented us in the pageant each year.

We are pleased to have the parents of the contestants and other students as tonight's honored guests to witness the competition and the selection of a new queen. While there can only be one Miss Prairie View A&M University, we certainly recognize all participants as winners and extend our sincere congratulations to each of them for having achieved this level of competition.

My wife, Louise, joins me on behalf of the Prairie View A&M University family in extending our sincere appreciation to the students and staff for their positive contributions to another excellent production.

Sincerely,

Julius W. Becton, Jr.
President

Miss Prairie View A&M University
1991-92

Elizabeth E. Vaughn

Elizabeth E. Vaughn was crowned Miss Prairie View A&M University, March 2, 1991. The pageant afforded her many opportunities to grow and develop both personally and professionally. She represented the University in the 1991 Miss Texas Scholarship Pageant, and was named 4th Runner-up in the 1991 Miss Black College Hall of Fame Pageant.

During her reign, Elizabeth availed herself of the opportunity to participate in various programs and to meet several dignitaries and noted personalities that visited the campus. One of her most memorable was the opportunity to meet and performed with the internationally acclaimed actor and comedian SINBAD.

We know that the Pageant experience was beneficial for her because she was able to meet and make many new friends. We extend our best to Elizabeth in her quest for success as an alumnus of the Pageant and the Prairie View A&M Family. We are certain that she appreciates all of the support she has received during her reign.

.....from the Executive Staff

Welcome to the 1992 Miss Prairie View A&M University Scholarship Pageant. It is with great pleasure that we present nine talented and progressive young ladies as they compete for the title of Miss Prairie View A&M University and the opportunity to become Miss Texas and Miss America.

In preparing for this evening's production, we have spent many hours perfecting the various areas of production and competition. Our theme "Harlem Renaissance" reflects on past awakenings of the productive spirits and creative energies of African Americans in America. We trust that tonight's production will use these past-times as footsteps towards unleashing the genius of the people through the development of quality leaders.

We extend our sincere thanks to all contestants who made our 22 years of Miss Texas participation a most pleasurable one. We also extend our thanks to the friends and families of the contestants and to the staff for their diligence in putting on another excellent production.

Miss Prairie View A&M University Scholarship Pageant A Historical Perspective

The era of the "seventies" introduced a new dimension of the Miss Prairie View A&M concept. Growing out of an earlier period, which focused on the election of a queen who reigned supreme at "Pantherland", the Miss Prairie View A&M Pageant introduced and extended its emphasis and provided the opportunity for "Miss Prairie View A&M" to compete in the Miss Texas Pageant, and ultimately in the Miss America Pageant.

Broadening the University's philosophical premise that "education must encompass the personal and social development of the individual as well as his/her intellectual, professional and cultural development", the University purchased a franchise from the Miss Texas-Miss America Pageants, to provide opportunities for its young women to enter the broader social-cultural competitive arena.

On April 28, 1970, the Miss Prairie View A&M Pageant became the first University pageant which was sponsored in cooperation with the Miss Texas-Miss America Pageants. Margaret Penn of Houston, Texas was selected as the winner, thus becoming the first Miss Prairie View A&M University to compete for the Miss Texas title. Prairie View A&M University, once again, made a major thrust forward into the mainstream of the American social system. As it made this move, it also provided for its young ladies a national experience; namely, the State and National competitors for Miss America, as an environment for learning and studying the concepts of the Free Enterprise System by becoming competitors in the social and cultural environment.

It was the "decade of the 70's" and Prairie View A&M University was on the move. A new era was being forged and the University was moving boldly to end its first century of service to the State and Nation while charting its future as it moved into its "Second Century". Throughout the University there were visible signs of tangible changes; yes, a change of its physical form. In the intellectual environment the change was electrifying, as the University moved for Excellence. In the world of academics, it broadened its scope and a dynamic faculty, students and administrators, developed programs to serve the state, the nation and the international communities. Therefore, the ushering in of the Miss Prairie View A&M Pageant, as a part of time larger Miss Texas and Miss America pageants, was compatible with the "new philosophy" at the University.

"The decade of the 70's" was coming to a close but the Miss Prairie View A&M Pageant had become the highlight of the social-cultural season at the University. Young ladies in gracious splendor as the vibrant colors of spring came alive in their highly fashionable evening gowns and young men garbed in sartorial elegance of white tie and formal tails set the scene for the social season. It was also during the seventies that the Royal Coronation for Miss Prairie View A&M University was revived in all its splendor.

The "decade of the 80's" was ushered in with the selection of Natalie McKinney of Bay City. The Pageant also made more impact during this period when Ava' Maria Malone of Houston became the first Miss Prairie View A&M to be recognized as a non-finalist in the Miss Texas Pageant in 1982. She was followed for the same honor by Lillie L. Taylor of Kinlock, Missouri and Lenice D. Brown of Prairie View. National recognition was brought to the University when Lillie Taylor was crowned Miss Collegiate Black America in 1985 and Shari Love was crowned Miss Black College Alumni Hall of Fame in 1987. The highlight thus far has been the selection of Dellenor R. Miles of Houston, Texas as Fourth Runner-up to Miss Texas in 1984, thus becoming the first Miss Prairie View A&M University to be named a finalist, in addition to the Most Talented Singer at the Pageant.

The "decade of the 90's" is young but is already labeled the 'decade of achievement in pageantry' at the University. Mary Ann Palmer of Bellville, Texas, was named fourth Runner-up in the Miss Black College Hall of Fame 1990 and was crowned Miss Collegiate African American 1990-91. The winning tradition continued when Jolie Lynn McKeel of St. Louis, Missouri was named 3rd Runner-up and Elizabeth E. Vaughn of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, was named 4th Runner-up in the Miss Black College Hall of Fame Pageant for 1991 and 1992, respectively. These young women have continued to bring national and international recognition to the University.

The Miss Prairie View A&M University Scholarship Pageant has been provided many varied experiences for the students, and particularly the young women at Prairie View A&M University. It has served well as a part of the development of the 'whole person'.

This coincides with the philosophy of a University of the 'first class'. Finally, the pageant program has provided another avenue for mainstreaming and recognizing the individual achievement of the students.

*If you think you are beaten, you are;
if you think you dare not, you don't;
if you like to win but think you can't it's almost a cinch you won't.*

*If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
for out in the world we find success begins with a fellow's will
and it's all in a state of mind.*

*If you think you are out-classed, you are,
you've got to think high to rise;
you've got to be sure of yourself before you can ever win a prize.*

*Life's battles don't always go to the stronger or faster man;
but sooner or later the man who wins
is the man who thinks he CAN.*
