Dear Mother:

Hope you've having a fine Mother's Day. For a change in weather up here, we're having clear and sunny skies and temperature in the 70's. It's nice after all those days of fog and rain.

Almost nothing of interest has been going on. I've had a cold all the past week and so haven't tried to go out much. It wasn't bad except for two days, but the cough and clogged head seem to have hung on. Today it's all much better, and I imagine it's over now.

Friday night I went to an Italian movie, L'Avventura, which I enjoyed, and last night had dinner with Jerry Dale. Otherwise, I haven't done a thing--just go to work and come home. Things have been slow in the office, too, for some reason.

I hope you're doing better with your ailments. Maybe the warm weather will help. Lots of love,

Hubert
