The PORTLAND

PORTLAND, OREGON, U.S.A.

Monday
May 24th

Dear Mother and Daddy —

I got your letters from Sam

I know how glad you were to hear all the news. That is wonderful about E. D. I know they are all so happy. I knew your party was nice. I'm glad you could have it. Mrs. Watty wrote me about it and said it was so nice and said Elizabeth was quite a hit.

Saturday Walter and I went out to the Wilamette River and Steel Co and to the dry dock. There and saw some of the ships and went aboard one.

PORTHOTEL

 It was quite interesting, altho I got stiff in the legs from climbing ^{up} and down so many ladders. I was the first hit say we've had (85°) and we nearly burned up. It is cooler again to-day. We didn't go to ^{visit} ~~visit~~ ^{now} Falls yesterday as it looked like rain.

My check from the Navy should come in a few days and if you could I would like for you or Daddy to deposit it to my account at the bank. I think you can do that with out my endorsing it.

I guess we were lucky to get a room at the hotel when we did. They are having some kind of convention here now and the hotel is filled with shoe salesmen.

I'm glad Aunt Cecel got to move in close to Gene & Della.
How did she happen to get it?

Must close now and get this off. Write me the news.

Give Elizabeth a kiss for me.

Lots of love -
Mittie
