THE BULLETIN is published seven times a year with issues in January, February March, August, September, November and December.

The President Writes

"From Tinker to Evers to Chance."

This is a slogan that represents a perfect cooperative enter prise. These three athletes have immortalized their names by doin something very well together. Their performances were of benefit to themselves, to each other, and to the Chicago Cubs.

The record established by this trio was not a matter of acc dent. It was the result of practicing and working together that per fected the play. Their private lives and other occupations ha nothing to do with their performance on the baseball diamond. It was a desire to excel in their special skills and to do something for the team that established their reputation as the greatest doubl play combination in baseball.

The half million dollar goal set by the general Alumni Association can be reached most easily by adopting the same sort of effort and cooperation that won the slogan, "From Tinker to Evento Chance."

I urge all alumni to accept the invitation to join Glenn Esl bach's team and help establish a record for our college.

ET RSINUS COLLEGE BULLETIN

Svelte and suave, aggressive and energetic, Glenn Eshbach is the nearest thing to perpetual motion to have come out of Ursinus College. This coiled-spring, panther-about-to-pounce bundle of action appears only as a blur on most retinas.

Finely honed and darkly handsome, -hands in, and then out of pockets,this man-about-the-world attacks vigorously whatever in the passing moment confronts him, or catches his eye. Shifting his weight from one foot to the other, when standing or sitting, with clenched fist or shaking fore-finger, he insists on getting to the point; with break-neck speed he hammers home his ideas, leaving his friends and colleagues panting-and persuaded. "Now right fast," he insists, "let's review what we've decided." Never is he given a gavel to chair a meeting; no table could take such a pounding!

But this bursting barrage of movement wins friends while getting them to work. He demands smilingly and inspires others to reflect the generous activity they see in him. Warm and genuine himself, Eshbach charges the atmosphere around him with similar good, and most men are happy to be led by one who pulls from them their more noble deeds.

Imagine this dynamo harnessed for action—for Ursinus; and that is exactly what we find. Straining at the bit, nervous and frenetic, Glenn Edgar Eshbach has for five years been steering the destiny of the Ursinus College Loyalty Fund and is now General Chairman, for alumni, of the Capital Funds Campaign described in subsequent pages of this issue of the Journal. And never was there such an impatient hand at a rudder. He won't rest, nor will he allow others to rest, until all previous records are bettered and all present goals are shattered. He will not lose. And this means that Ursinus and the Loyalty Fund will win!

To be taken to this leader is to be taken by this leader. Frowning, fretting, pleading and cajoling, he is dedicated to the task of making Ursinus alumni proud of their record of giving to the Loyalty Fund. Consider these facts and you will not doubt that he has succeeded in accomplishing what he set out to do

In 1958 Eshbach said, "Let's push Ursinus to the top of the national listing er of colleges whose alumni support their alma mater's annual giving program." In the 1959 American Alumni Council Bulletin Ursinus was listed second in the nation in percentage of alumni participa tion among small, co-educational libera arts colleges.

In 1960 Eshbach said, "Let's push up our percentage of participation still fur ther; let's drive this year for 50% par ticipation." The November, 1961, issue of the Alumni Journal carried the re sult; 53.5% of the 4,600 Ursinus alum in participated in the 1960-61 campaign of

In 1961 Eshbach said, "Our participa tion percentage is pretty good; let's g after dollars this year. Our goal will be $50,000." The result? During the 1961 62 campaign Ursinus alumni contribute $52,942. (In 1957 the money collecte was $22,819; in 1961 the total wa $44,215.)

Born in Millersville, Pa., 45 year ago, Eshbach rushed through Wright

ville High and was graduated from Ursinus in 1939. As one would expect, track was his major "what I am remembered for" extra-curricular activity; he still holds the college broad-jump record, 226", the oldest track record on the books at Ursinus. He was captain of the eam in his senior year while also letterng in football and basketball; in basketball, as a freshman, he was high scorer. He was a member of the Curtain Club und of Sigma Rho Lambda Fraternity, und a charter member of the Cub and Key Society.

Upon graduation he was employed by he Atlantic Refining Company as a ervice station retail salesman, rising by 1957 to New Jersey Sales Manager (the oungest sales manager for Atlantic in he United States) in charge of 300 servce stations and three waterway termitals and of sales, both retail and wholeale, of all fuel oil, gasoline and lubriants. His work with Atlantic was nterrupted by five years of military servce; he served as a captain in the army nd spent most of the war years in the outh Pacific, including eighteen months n Saiban.

Since September, 1957, he has been beneral Manager and Executive Viceresident of the Princeton Fuel Oil Jompany, the oldest and largest fuel oil ealership in the Princeton area. In 1960 e was named a director of Princeton's urgest bank, The First National Bank f Princeton.

He belongs to the Princeton Rotary lub, the Hopewell Golf Club, the enn Brook Swimming Club, teaches me men's Bible class in the Pennington Presbyterian Church, coaches the midget football team of Pennington, plays squash nightly during the academic year at Princeton, and in the winter finds time to whirl down New England skiing slopes.

By his own admission, his biggest break came in 1943 when he married Ruth Ludwig, '41. They have two boys: Glenn, 17, a senior at Darrow School in New Lebanon, N. Y., and Ted, 15, in the third form at Kent School in Kent, Conn.

Since 1957 Eshbach has, as General Chairman of the Loyalty Fund Committee, directed the operations of Ursinus' annual giving program. During this fiveyear period the number of contributors has risen from 1,603 to 2,520, or from 38% to 52% of the living alumni; contributions went from $22,819 to $52,942 during this same span.

Perhaps most incredible and productive of all his accomplishments for Ursinus' Loyalty Fund is his work as Class Chairman. He has acted in this capacity since the inauguration of the Fund in 1954. In that year 43 of the 93 members of the Class of 1939 contributed. By persistent wooing and a prodigious amount of work he has led his class from that original 46% participation to this year's phenomenal 90% participation. In the campaign just concluded 83 of his 92 classmates have contributed. No other class of comparable size comes close to such a record.

The facts testify that the Ursinus College Loyalty Fund has a chairman who is, in fact and in deed, its leader. "Vive l' Eshbach!"

The Loyalty Fund Committee

The Loyalty Fund Committee, composed of thirteen alumni, is an agency of the Alumni Association, whose Executive Committee appoints the members in accord with the Association's constitution.

The Committee is, in fact, the most active group within the Association. Now in its tenth year, it has raised $285,631.18 for Ursinus. It not only sets the policies but it is also responsible for developing organizational and procedural methods for approaching alumni for gifts.

At its meeting on January 14, 1962, it agreed that $500,000 was a reasonable and realistic goal for alumni participation in Ursinus' Capital Funds Drive for 5 million dollars. Loyalty Fund Committee members felt that the 5,000 Ursinus alumni could raise this sum over a period of approximately three years, or from September 15, 1962, to December 31, 1965.

Eleven committee members are described below. Two others serve as ex officio members of the Committee; they are D. L. Helfferich, '21, president of the College, and Richard T. Schellhase, '45, executive secretary of the Alumni Association. Charles Lachman, vice president of the College and chairman of the Long-Term Planning Committee of the Board of Directors sits with the Committee as the representative of the Board of Directors. Pa P

F. Galey Chandler '50

A recent appointee to the Committee, Galey, while respecting the views of his older colleagues, is never so over-awed is to remain silent. Young, energetic and induction that a creative and versatile mind, he brings fresh and new ideas which are welcomed by the other Comnittee members. He speaks for the postvar classes which represents such a large proportion of Ursinus alumni. His maor responsibility on the Committee is in he area of publicity.

A letterman in football and wrestling s an undergraduate, he continues his nerests in sports by coaching a Little eague team in baseball and his church eam in basketball. He is Vice-president f the Devon P.T.A.

Married to the former Marjorie .achman, ex '54, Galey is now Viceresident and Secretary of Lachman and ons, Inc., wholesale and retail dealer 1 carpets, with offices in Philadelphia.

Paul L. Wise, '41

Paul, the newest member of the Comnittee, was appointed last year to head the Century Club; he will devise ways nd means of attracting an increasing umber of alumni to join those 150 who lready annually contribute $100 or ore to the College. His winning smile nd friendly manner are among the asts which he brings to enrich the Comnittee. Associate Counsel for the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Co., Paul is a trustee in the Radnor Methodist Church and Treasurer of the Radnor International Student Committee. During the war he spent two years in the Army Counter-intelligence Corps.

Edwin H. Krall, '31

"Quiet competence" best describes Ed Krall. Tact and patience, too, are qualities which he brings to the Committee. In meetings he is often found rightly interpreting and precisely expressing what others are striving to say. His special area of work with the Loyalty Fund is "Matching Gifts," the program whereby certain corporations "match" the employee's gifts to higher education.

President of the Men's Student Government when at Ursinus, he is now Assistant Vice-president of Girard Trust Corn Exchange Bank, Philadelphia. At present he is also Treasurer of the Glenolden Congregational Church. He is married to his Ursinus classmate, the former Ethel Strauss.

J. Clayton Worster, '37

Big, informal, urbane, Clate Worster adds still other dimensions to the Committee's deliberations and actions. His easy-going manner and wry smile help to give the Committee the sense of humor about itself that is necessary, if things are to be done without the ephastly seriousness which, in many meetings and organizations, so often leads to ulcers!

His off-campus role is played with the Welsbach Corporation, a service, manufacturing and construction corporation, where he is Director, Vice-president and Secretary. In behalf of Welsbach, he travels to Latin America so frequently that, when you phone him, you are apt to hear him begin his conversation with "Buenos dias." As an undergraduate he won letters in football, basketball and tennis, was in the Curtain Club, on the M.S.G.A., in Who's Who and a member of Cub and Key. He still found time to woo and wim—and later marry —Caroline Rhoads, '38.

William R. Shuster

Robert F. Hartman, '54

Bob Hartman, the only bachelor and the youngest member on the Committee, is Personnel Representative with Standard Pressed Steel Company in Jenkintown. During the winter of this year he spent six months in Ireland setting up a personnel office there for that branch of his company's operations.

The son of a minister, Bob, as an Ursinus student, was president of the "Y," served as vice-president of his class, and was elected to Cub & Key. His military service was spent in Army Intelligence.

Genial and jovial, with a careful and methodical manner, Bob is a useful member of the Committee, where he serves as vice-chairman for personnel, seeking particularly to keep a full complement of Class Chairmen and Vice-Chairmen.

William R. Shuster, '39

Bill Shuster's role on the Committee is that which characterizes his personal relations with all who know him: He is the world's best listener. His sympathetic ear and his obviously genuine regard for each person he meets are reflected in his intense interest in what others are saying, in his honor for others' dignity and right to speak. When other committee members impatiently try to discard an idea which they consider obviously "off base," Bill will hear the man out even though he may not agree with him.

Quiet, kind, reflective: these qualities are those seen in Bill Shuster by those who know him. In public life he is Vice-president and Treasurer of Penn Associates, Inc., a Philadelphia firm which specializes in manufacturing industrial thread and twine.

Paul I. Guest, '38

Pleasant, pipe-smoking Paul Guest has always kept his feet and heart near to Ursinus. Active in alumni affairs since his graduation, he guided the Alumni Association as its president for two terms. His quiet, easy manner has won him a host of friends among alumni of all generations.

A partner in the law firm of Grubb, Guest and Littleton, engaged in general practice, Paul is also President of the Methodist Hospital, a trustee of the Philadelphia Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, a member of the Union League, the Philadelphia Country Club, and active in many other professional and social organizations.

Austin Gavin, '30

Austin Gavin brings an alert, incisive mind to the Committee, expressing the kind of convictions and confidence which that must have been, in part, responsible for his rapid rise in the Pennsylvania Power H & Light Co., which he serves as Vice president and General Counsel.

He brings further technical fundaising knowledge and experience to he Committee, since he has served as General Chairman of the Allentown YMCA-YWCA Building Fund Drive. One of those people who sits on the edge of his chair, Austin Gavin is always ready and willing to dedicate his special talents to helping steer Ursinus' financial drives into the proper organizational and operational procedures. When discussions slow down or tend to become tangential or vague, his foot-tapping becomes louder: the Committee members sense what he is implying and quickly get back to the point. Were it not for Austin Gavin the Lovalty Fund Committee would not act as expeditiously or as wisely as it does. He is an invaluable member of the team.

Harold L. Wiand, '28

"I not only think Ursinus; I dream Ursinus. I also work for Ursinus, but the Pennsy pays me," says Harold. And no one who knows this "Ursinus-first" fan doubts him. It can be said without fear of contradiction that no student, no faculty member, and no alumnus is more emotional about, more committed to, and more enthusiastic for Ursinus than he who now presides as president over the Alumni Association.

Upon conversing with Harold one would never suppose that he is Manager of Public Relations, Philadelphia Region, for the Pennsylvania Railroad. Rather, the impression you would get is that he is Manager, Public Relations, wherever he is, for Ursinus College.

Warm and genuine, active in church, civic, and social circles, he plays an indispensable role in Ursinus' developing Loyalty Fund Campaign. His only son, Fred, was a member of the Class of 1962.

Raymond Gurzynski, '39

"If you can't get along with Ray Gurzynski you can't get along with anybody," is a common remark heard on the Ursinus campus. Popular among students and faculty members, wellknown and well-liked by hundreds of alumni, Ray's irenic demeanor and natural gift for making difficult jobs look easy make him the ideal man for his responsibility on the committee; he is in charge of undergraduate activities.

A star in football and baseball, active in the Newman Club, and a member of Cub and Key during his student years, he is now active in church projects, the Boy Scouts, and the Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Conference (Vice-chairman of the track section). At Ursinus he is associate professor of physical education, the track coach, and assistant football coach.

Ursinus Launches Campaign For Five Million Dollars

On Friday, July 6, Dr. Donald L. Helfferich, president of Ursinus College, announced that a financial campaign for 5 million dollars will be launched this September.

The campaign is planned in anticipation of celebration of the College's Centennial in 1969.

Approximately half of the sum sought is needed for improved and expanded buildings and facilities. The other half will be applied to the payment of more adequate teaching salaries and to increased scholarship resources, Dr. Helfferich said.

Construction is already under way on a heating and power plant with a system of water and steam pipes, electrical conduits, etc, leading to sub-stations at various points on the campus so that service will be easily accessible to existing buildings and to those likely to be erected in the remote as well as the more immediate future. The heat and power plant and distribution system is estimated to cost $800.000.

Next on the proposed building schedule is a building for dining rooms, kitchen and auxiliary service facilities, estimated to cost $1,200,000, and for which ground will be broken in 1963.

In announcing the financial campaign to the public, President Helfferich said,

"We believe that Ursinus College, in addition to its unquestionable academic excellence, has an appeal to the interest and for the generous support of business, industry, alumni, friends, and citizens generally, a claim which is in keeping with a great American tradition.

"First, Ursinus College seeks to inculcate in its students the historic virtues of industry and thrift, and tries to practice what it teaches by living within its income.

"Second, Ursinus College provides residential and classroom facilities of dignity and utility, without the trappings of luxury.

"Third, as a matter of policy, Ursinus College has neither sought nor accepted State or Federal government aid in any form

"We are committed to the traditions of independent, liberal arts education and are counting on alumni and interest ed citizens to help us keep to that com mitment."

Alumni Seek to Raise $500,000

On June 2, 1962, at the annual sprin meeting of the executive committee o the Alumni Association the followin motion, made by Thomas J. Beddow the Board of Directors of Ursinus College, was passed unanimously: "I mov that we recommend to the Gener: Alumni Association that the Alumni As sociation approve, agree to, and adop the proposal to raise $500,000 over th next three years through the Loyalt Fund program, towards the goal o $5,000,000 as established by the Boar of Directors."

On the same date, at the Gener: Meeting of the Alumni Association hel in Bomberger Hall, a similar motion wa passed enthusiastically.

Gift Incentives

Dr. Helfferich has announced that ontributors of $1,000 or more during the current Capital Funds Campaign hay, if it is the donor's desire, establish special, personal, permanent endowent which will bear the name of the onor (or of a person whom the alumus wishes to memorialize). Alumni who nticipate contributing a total of $1,000 r more during the next three or more ears may talk over special details with r. Helfferich at their convenience.

Special gifts may also be made toward te payment of particular rooms (in the roposed dining hall), furnishings, or juipment.

Proper recognition to the donors, in re form of a plaque placed near the em which the alumnus has paid for, is anned.

Hints for Tax-Conscious Alumni

The College encourages tax-conscious umni, if they find it more convenient advantageous, to spread their giving this campaign to include more than ree years.

The Capital Funds Drive opens in ptember, 1962; plans call for it to end December 31, 1965. However, the mpaign books will remain "open" until e spring of 1966. New power plant as seen from girls' dormitory.

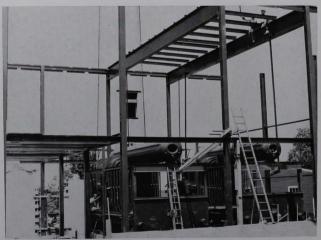

An aerial photograph, shot in mid-July, showing present construction work.

On August 1 Dr. D. L. Helfferich reported to the Alumni Office that nine alumni had already pledged a total of $43,000 toward the $500,000 Capital Funds Campaign which will begin in September.

This figure represents nearly one-tenth of the goal which alumni are expected to raise.

A close-up of the two 350 h.p. boilers, showing water tubes before the casings were put on.

Campaign Strategy

In order to make it possible to solicit personally over 85% of the alumni, the following plans have been laid.

The Eastern section of the United States has been divided into thirteen areas. The enthusiasm and loyalty of alumni are reflected by the fact that in June, when Dr. Helfferich recruited chairmen to head the thirteen areas, it took only fifteen phone calls to fill these positions.

These thirteen area chairmen meet monthly with the Loyalty Fund Committee in order to work out details of the campaign.

By August 1, each area chairman had recruited additional alumni, thus forming an area committee.

At present the area committees are making preparations for a fall dinner in each of their respective communities. The alumni who are invited and who attend these area dinners will act as solicitors. Present plans call for an aggregate attendance at these dinners of 600 to 700 alumni. These alumni, in turn, will solicit, it is anticipated, almost 70% of all Ursinus alumni.

Two further steps have been taken to insure personal solicitation of another 15% of the alumni.

In cities which are outside of the thirteen areas but which have a concentration of alumni, such as Wilmington. Pittsburgh, Scranton, etc., small luncheons will be planned to which alumni who will be asked to solicit their fellowtownsmen will be invited.

In the communities where there is a still smaller concentration of alumni, representatives from the administration or faculty, or alumni who volunteer to act as such representatives, will make solicitation calls.

With alumni spread over all sections of the United States and in many foreign countries, it is obvious that not all alumni can be solicited personally. These people, who, it is expected, will not number more than six hundred, will be solicited by mail.

ALUMNI MUST THINK BIG

by JAMES E. WAGNER

Vice-president, Ursinus College

The remarkable record which Ursinus College alumni have registered in their annual giving to the Loyalty Fund constitutes one of the most vivid impressions I have gathered as a newcomer to the campus.

That record called to mind an old slogan which I used many times during my days as a pastor, and which seems to be especially well exemplified in what the interest and devotion of its alumni mean to Ursinus College. The slogan might well serve as one of the watchwords of the effort now being inaugurated to raise $5,000,000 for Ursinus College.

Loyalty and Love will Lift the Load.

Now, as the 5,000 living alumni join hands to raise a minimum of $500,000 toward the total goal, it seems to me that there are a number of things alumni particularly will want to keep in mind.

1. That five-million dollar goal is to be allocated to purposes which every alumnus will favor. Approximately half of it will go toward the cost of the new Heating and Power Plant (basic to all future campus development), the new Dining Hall, and a program of repair, renovation and refurnishing of existing facilities which is already under way and will proceed for the next year or two. The other half of the goal, it is hoped, can constitute substantial increases in endowed scholarships and in general endowment, the annual income from which will enable Ursinus College to aid a larger number of worthy students who need help in financing their schooling, and to lift teaching salaries to levels more in keeping with the economy of the times and with the incalculable debt everyone feels toward the devoted and competent teaching staff which labors on the Ursinus Campus.

2. Ursinus alumni will want to remember that what they are being asked to do toward the raising of their $500,000 share of the $5,000,000 being sought, is only what others in other generations have done and have been asked to do from time to time. Some of them were alumni of Ursinus College. Some of them were alumni of other colleges. But one fact which is as moving to recall as it is near-miraculous in its having happened is that, in the days of the founding of Ursinus College, and persist ently through the years ever since, many of the gifts for Ursinus College have come from farmers, merchants, mechanics, small tradesmen, most of whom had not themselves had the benefit of a college education but believed in it so fully that they wanted to help make it possible for others.

3. Response to the annual Loyalty Fund appeal has now passed the $50,000 mark. The present campaign,—while it is conceived as including, not pre-empting, the place of the usual Loyalty Fund appeal,—is for an amount ten times $50,000. This means simply that Ursinus Alumni are now called upon to "think big" in deciding what their gifts are to be.

4. One way of amplifying the implications of that last sentence would be something like this. If this were a special appeal for alumni giving during the 1962-63 year, the appeal might be to double or triple the amount you have usually given. But since the alumni goal approximates ten times as much as previous annual alumni giving, and since the plan encourages you to take advantage of at least four tax years, then what alumni need to do is, first, to triple the amount each has usually given, then multiply that by four,-and with a prayer in your heart and a deep thrust of your hand into your pocket, sign up with an "inten-tion-to-subscribe" over the next four years at least twelve times the amount you have been accustomed to give each vear.

Putting it that way makes it clear that "thinking big" is no idle phrase with reference to each alumnus' responsibility in the raising of the $500,000 goal.

It also lifts into bold relief, full of promise and hope and gratitude, the import of the old slogan with which this article began:

Loyalty and Love will Lift the Load!

A view of the new power plant from above Sprankle Hall (the Infirmary), showing the 8" water main which replaces the old and inadequate 4" ones.

Gifts Needed to Raise $500,000

In order to reach the $500,000 goal, the following gifts from a total of 2,200 alumni are needed—and anticipated:

- 30 gifts of $750 50 gifts of $600
- 120 gifts of $300
- 2,000 gifts of $120

These gifts, from the majority of Ursinus' 5,000 alumni, will total $328,500. The balance of the target figures, or $171,500, will be contributed by alumni who have the ability and disposition to pledge higher amounts. The College anticipates receiving this sum, in gifts ranging from $1,000 upward, from approximately 100 other alumni.

The minimum figure cited, $120, implies that the donor would contribute $40 annually, or $10 a quarter. This sum, it is felt, is within the reach and ability of all alumni.

SAMUEL BOND URSINUS' ARCHITECT

Fourth in a series of portraits entitled Know Your Board of Directors

A conversation with Ursinus' architect aturally turns to where the College has een and where it is going.

"What we're trying to do," explained Ir. Bond, "is to create new buildings hat will function in a modern way, acording to modern curricula, teaching nethods, and concepts of campus life. Jut at the same time," he added, "we vill insist upon retaining as much of the raditional 'spirit of Ursinus' as is possile. We will first determine which styles f present buildings are worthy of peretuation; then we will continue the best arts of these styles. We choose to do his, rather than to inaugurate some tartlingly contemporary style on the ampus."

Asked whether or not he envisioned he eventual "closing in" of the campus, hat is, whether or not the front campus yould be invaded by buildings, he said, No. There is no plan to build along Main Street or to destroy the present cauty of this area. Morever, whatever will be erected behind the presently existing main buildings will be properly located so that the feeling of spaciousness is maintained. We intend to have plenty of 'air' around all the buildings which we construct. In short, we are trying to achieve a beautiful, unified, functional, harmonious campus; this is our aim."

A resident of Orefield, with offices in Allentown, Mr. Bond majored in architecture at Carnegie Institute of Technology and has twenty years' experience in his profession. In 1958 he planned and executed the erection of the new girls' dormitories, and he is now the architect in charge of the power plant and steam distribution facility being constructed. His firm is also responsible for the plans of the new dining hall.

At present Mr. Bond has work in process in a half dozen areas in Eastern Pennsylvania. Last year he received the "Honor Award of the American Institute of Architects" for the physical education building which he designed for Cedar Crest College.

In 1954 he was elected to the Ursinus College Board of Directors. His civic and church activities have included membership on the boards of directors of the Lehigh County Health Association, of which he was president in 1954-55, the Lehigh County Community Council, of which he was president in 1955-56, the Evangelical & Reformed Church General Council, and the Phobe-Devitt Home for the Aged. He is a past elder and teaches church school at Salem U.C.C., Allentown.

Pleasant and mild-mannered, Mr. Bond expressed confidence in the decisions of the Long-Term Planning Committee of Ursinus' Board. "I believe," he said, "that Ursinus is carefully and wisely planning for the college of tomorrow. The work we have been charged to do building the power plant and laying new lines throughout the campus—is the finest kind of foundation for future additions."

FACULTY NOTES

Alumni frequently inquire about the activities of Ursinus College faculty members during the summer months. Here is a sampling of the varied nature of their travel, work and study:

Miss Ruth H. Rothenberger, '36, Dean of Women, sailed on June 27 for Germany, where she is spending eight weeks as a group leader for the 1962 summer program of The Experiment in International Living.

In the Department of Chemistry, Dr. Donald H. Fortnum worked for ten weeks at Boston University in the National Foundation Research Participation Program for College Chemistry Teachers and is now traveling in Wisconsin; Dr. Russell D. Sturgis spent two weeks at one of his hobbies, Civil War History, "following in the tracks of Generals Grant and Sherman;" and Dr. Roger P. Staiger, '43, taught a four-week Science Summer Seminar at Albright College and is now enroute West with Mr. J. Douglas Davis, '41, planning to visit the Seattle World's Fair.

Dr. Alfred L. Greager, '31, College Chaplain, wrote articles for the United Church Herald and the Church School Worker. He has also revised his book, Old Testament Heritage, which will be reprinted in paperback in late 1962. His two-volume work, The Church—The Faith Community, will be published by The Christian Education Press and will be used as textbooks by older young people and adults in the church schools of the United Church of Christ.

Dr. George W. Hartzell, professor of German, flew to Europe for two months of travel and study; for three weeks he studied German Literature at the University of Freiburg.

Dr. F. Donald Zucker, of the political science department, relaxed in Maine before returning to his home in Delphi, from which he is "planning and executing a winning campaign for the Pennsylvania State Senate," on the Democratic ticket. The June issue of the American Political Science Review carries a book review by Dr. Zucker.

Dr. John J. Heilemann, head of the physics department, read a paper entitled "The Pulse in the Elementary Study of Wave Phenomena" at the June meeting of the American Association of Physics Teachers held at Carleton College in Minnesota. His colleague, Dr. Evan S. Snyder, '44, is spending the three sum mer months as a research participant at the Oak Ridge National Laboratory in Tennessee.

Dr. George G. Storey, associate professor of English, is teaching courses on "Great English Writers" and "Eighteenth Century Literature" for eight weeks at the University of Delaware.

Dr. William J. Phillips, professor of English, is traveling in Europe for two months. Dr. Levie van Dam, professor of biology, toured Canada; from there he sailed for Europe where for two months he is traveling and visiting relatives and friends.

Dr. Frank L. Manning, head of the mathematics department, vacationed in Bermuda and then drove to the Seattle World's Fair. Miss Blanche B. Schultz, '41, spent June at the University of Oklahoma attending a Computer Science Conference for college professors of science, mathematics and engineering. In July she was on active duty for training with Navy Patrol Squadron 934, which operated out of Jacksonville, Florida, Naval Air Station.

Dr. William F. Philip visited, among other scenic spots, the Music Camp in Maine where, for fifteen years, he taught. Mr. Robert R. MacMurray, '50, of the economics department, after studying for six weeks in the U. of Pa. Summer School, traveled through Virginia.

Mr. H. Lloyd Jones visited one month in Santa Fe before returning to the Admissions Office. Mr. John R. Gustavson took graduate courses in English Literature at Lehigh.

Dr. Edward H. Platte, the college physician, motored to the Seattle World's Fair, and Dr. Henry K. Shearer of the economics department participated in several seminars conducted by the Graduate School of Business at the University of Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. Roland F. Doane, both of the Department of Romance Languages, spent the summer in Burlington, Vermont, teaching at the University of Vermont, where Dr. Doane had taught for thirty-five years, prior to his coming to Ursinus.

Dr. William T. Parsons, '47, contributed in several ways to the Norristown Sesquicentennial celebration. His "Notes and Documents on the Sesquicentennial of Norristown as a Borough 1812-1962" was read at the February meeting of the Professors Mattern, Bone, Sturgis, Yost, Phili ing the Summer School. These six professors years each.

Historical Society of Montgomery County and was subsequently published in the Spring, 1962, issue of the Society's Bulletin. This article also served as the historical feature in the Sesquicentennial edition of the Norristown Times Herald. Dr. Parson's "Lives and Interests of Isaac Norris I and II' similarly was the feature article in the special issue of the Montgomery Post.

At the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Historical Association, which will be held in Allentown in conjunction with the Allentown Bicentennial observance, Dr. Parsons will present a paper entitled "William Allen as Seen by a Contemporary." During the summer months Dr. Parsons expects to complete his historical biography of Isaac Norri-II.

Dr. Maurice W. Armstrong, head of the history department, acted as tou conductor for the Second Annual Ursin us College Travel Seminar, which visit ed eight European countries in two months. Fourteen students made the trij with him, some of whom took the toufor course credit.

The many friends of Mr. Maurice O. Bone and Dr. Foster L. Dennis, '31 will be happy to learn that they ar making rapid progress toward full recovery from the illnesses which they suffere shortly before the end of the academivear.

1962 Commencement

On June 4, 191 Ursinus seniors received their degrees at the graduation exercises in the New Gym.

Admiral Ben Moreell, U.S.N. (ret.) delivered the commencement address. "The crucial conflict of our day," he said, "is between self-disciplined responsible individualism and coercive collectivism functioning under disciplines imposed and enforced by the state."

"Self-discipline," he continued, "stems from dedication to a system of moral values derived from our religious convictions."

Admiral Moreell's naval career began shortly after his graduation from Washington University in 1913. He became an admiral in 1937, and, three weeks after the attack on Pearl Harbor, he organized the SeaBees; under his leadership and command these buildersfighters grew to a total strength of 10,000 officers and 240,000 men, a tenbillion dollar enterprise.

Following his retirement from the Navy in 1946, he became chairman of the board and president of Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation. He relinquished the presidency in 1952 but continued as chairman of the board until his retirment in 1958.

He was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree by the College.

Other recipients of honorary degrees were the Reverend Andre Rocco de Villiers of Durban, South Africa, moderator of the Presbyterian Church of South Africa, who received the degree of Doctor of Divinity and who delivered the Baccalaureate sermon; the Reverend F. Nelson Schlegel, '23, executive secretary of the City Missionary Society of Boston, who was granted the degree of Doctor of Divinity; and John Anthony Brown, Jr., vice-president of Occidental College in Los Angeles, who was awarded the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters. Mr. Brown was formerly professor of political science and dean of men at Temple University.

"Distinguished Teaching"

Dr. Roger P. Staiger, '43, associate professor of chemistry, and Evan S. Snyder, '44, associate professor of physics, each with more than fifteen years' service on the Ursinus faculty, received the Christian R. and Mary F. Lindback Awards for Distinguished Teaching at the June commencement exercises.

The awards, each in the amount of

Admiral Ben Moreell, U.S.N. (Ret.)

$500, were made possible, for the second consecutive year, by a generous grant from the Lindback Foundation. The late Mr. Lindback was at one time president of Abbotts Dairies. The College also received $1,000 to be applied to the endowment for scholarships.

MARTIN M. KOHN, '40

Sailing the high seas under a most heartening and encouraging name, the S.S. Hope also carries its traditional travelling companions, Faith and Charity. Along with these intangible blessings, this American ship of aid and comfort has, among its 100 hand-picked medical specialists, an Ursinus alumnus, Martin M. Kohn, '40.

Practically a floating medical school, the S.S. Hope brings healing and the healing arts to countries which send her an S.O.S.; she goes only where national and local health and medical authorities invite her.

Dr. Kohn, an internist and heart specialist, whose practice is in suburban San Francisco, volunteered to serve on the Hope's initial assignment in the Far East. This summer he, with his wife, also a physician, their three sons and a daughter, flew to Peru where they met the Hope and settled down with her for a nine weeks' mission in that land.

A native of Norristown, Dr. Kohn is a graduate of the University of Chicago Medical School; he took advanced work at the Leahy Clinic in Boston. A major in WWII, he was with the Allied Headquarters Staff in Europe. At present he is assistant chief of Peninsula Hospital, San Francisco, and presidentelect of the San Mateo Heart Association. His wife, a pediatrician, is a clinical instructor at the University of California at San Francisco.

ALUMN

SANDRA E. MOTTA, '61

Harold Wiand, '28, president of the Alumni Association, engineered one of the neatest publicity feats for Ursinus in recent years.

When the Phoenixville Junior Chamber of Commerce was looking for some beauties to ride in its tenth annual dogwood parade, he suggested Sandy Motta, '61, the 1960 Miss Liberty Bowl, who now teaches mathematics in the Glenside-Weldon Junior High School.

During the May 19 festivities, Sandy was presented with four native pink and white blossoming dogwood trees, which Col. William G. Dunnington, Commanding Officer at Valley Forge General Hospital and formerly stationed with the U.S. Army in Panama, arranged with the Military Air Transportation Service to have flown to Panama.

In presenting the trees to the Latin

American beauty, Raymond Keifer, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, expressed the hope that "these trees might spark the concept of a 'friendship fence' to replace the present cyclone-type protective fence along the canal."

The trees began their 3,000-mile journey on June 21; Sandra left for home on June 23, and the following week she planted the trees at Gutan Locks at the Atlantic Ocean entrance to the canal.

Before her return to Panama, Sandra appeared on WPEN's Red Benson show on June 8. Parts of this original broadcast were replayed on June 11 and June 17. The "In Our Town" column of The Evening Bulletin carried a feature story on Sandy and these events on June 11. And Sandy, a loyal Ursinus alumna, mentioned the name of the College at every opportunity.

"At 75, Dr. Ralph Wiest Schlosser still strides across the campus with the same purposeful gait he has used since he first set foot on the grounds of the College some 57 years ago." Thus begins a brochure printed by Elizabethtown College and distributed at a "Recognition Luncheon" held for Dr. Schlosser and his wife on June 2.

During the luncheon, the vice chairman of the Board of Trustees granted him the title "President-Emeritus." For his years of work, instruction, sacrifice, service and devotion to Elizabethtown, he was hailed as one of the most powerful forces in the moulding of that college.

After attending the academy at Elizabethtown as a student-teacher, he came to Ursinus and was graduated in 1911; he received an A.M. from Ursinus in 1912. He returned to Elizabethtown to teach English, became head of the Department of English, served as dean of the college for five years, and was elected president of Elizabethtown College in 1927, a position he held until 1941.

Dr. Schlosser earned a second master's degree in 1922, from Columbia University; Ursinus conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Literature in 1932.

And, as the brochure pointed out, "The fact that he still travels an average of 15,000 miles each year on church business and speaking engagements is ample evidence that he is still very much on the go."

IN THE NEWS

SHERIDAN D. MUCH, '47

Joe Much became Sports Editor of ne Salem, Oregon, Capital Journal on ept. 1, and less than six months later e was the subject, in his own paper, f a long feature article which, in unquivocal prose, lauded the Capital Jourals new find. His "taking familiar ords and rearranging them to introuce versatile vitality in sports writing" what seems to have impressed his West oast readers.

For instance, to Joe, a coach who prototes sports among kids does "missiony work among the lollypop set." A nart horse is one with "hayburning "udition." A talkative pole vaulter is owelsome," and vaulting out-doors is "stick jumping in the fresh air."

Some tall basketball players are, he suggests, "gaunt specters with rebellious glands and with insufficient coordination to walk and chew gum at the same time." Other players have "arms as limp as yesterday's asparagus."

Interrogated about his academic past, Joe described Ursinus as a place where "you don't learn to make a living, but learn to live a fuller life."

Married to the former Juanita Wood, '48, he moved West with his family from Colorado, where he was Sports Editor of The Daily Sentinel in Grand Junction.

'62 Loyalty Fund Nets $52,942.84 61% INCREASE OVER 1960 FIGURES

Percentage of Increase In Contributions

The increase in Loyalty Fund contributions rose 16% in the 1962 campaign. From 1960 to 1962 the increase in contributions was 61%. In nine years alumni have contributed a total of $285,-631.18 to Ursinus through the Loyalty Fund.

1962 Campaign

Ursinus graduates can once again be proud of their record of giving to the College. In 1962 2,520 alumni contributed $52,942.84.

These figures are to be compared with the 1961 record: 2,476 and $44,215.34.

Percentage of participation in 1962 was 52.6%, and the average gift was $21.01, an increase of $3.16 over 1961.

Ursinus, continuing its phenomenal rate of alumni participation in the annual giving program, again scored high in the national ranking of colleges in its category.

Glenn Eshbach, '39, General Chairman of the Loyalty Fund, commented that his work in the drive is made "pleasant and pleasurable" in the light of such a willing and generous response from fellow alumni. "The cooperation I get from everyone involved is most heartening and encouraging," he said.

This report convinces me that the quotation from Faraday on the facade of Pfahler Hall of Science has had an effect on Ursinus students; "But still try, for eako knows what is possible." Accepting this as a challenge, alumni will exceed their $500,000 gal in the coming Capital Funds Drive.

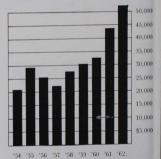

D L HELFFERICH

The Century Club

In 1954, the first year of the Loyalty Fund, 33 alumni contributed $100 or more. During this latest campaign there were 148 members of The Century Club, representing an advance of over 200%.

The Class of 1938, with thirteen of its members contributing $100 or more, led the list in the 1962 campaign, as it had in 1961. The Class of 1931 had nine Century Clubbers, and there were seven from the Class of 1943. The classes of 1936, 1939, 1941 and 1951 had six each.

Leading Classes

The Class of 1894, with $5,000 in total contributions, led the field in the 1962 Loyalty Fund Campaign. Second among the sixty-seven classes was the Class of 1936, with $2,942.38. The Class of 1929 gave $2,226.00 to place third.

In percentage of participation among the forty-three classes which have twentyfive or more living members, the Class of 1939 ranked first; 90% or 83 of its 92 members contributed. The Class of 1921 reached 89%, followed by the Class of 1961, 72%; the Class of 1938, 72%; the Class of 1926, 69%; the Class of 1945, 68%; and the Class of 1954, 67%.

BEST TRACK SEASON IN URSINUS HISTORY

The 1962 track season was the best in the history of the sport at Ursinus. At the close of last year's season, the previous best, not much hope was held for a good season in 1962. This pessimism was due to the graduation of tri-captains Vernon Morgan, Dennis Gould, and Al Walton, three of the greatest performers in Ursinus track history. However, a good nucleus led by Captain Peter Wise, Dick Woodruff, Bob Carney, Dennis Wilson, Tony Sermarini, Dave Bonner, John Hunsicker, and Bill Pratt, plus some additions not out for track in 1961 and a good crop of freshmen, combined to give Ursinus a 7-3 regular season record.

The mile relay team of Sermarini, Powers, Wise, and Dunn, ran third in the "Pop" Haddleton Memorial mile relay at the Penn Relays and set a new school record of 3:30.9. Subsequently, with the Muhlenberg meet tied at 63-63, the relay team of Sermarini, Powers, Walter and Dunn, broke the school record once more, running a 3:30.0 to win the race and the meet. Finally, at the Middle Atlantics at Rutgers, this same team lowered the record to 3:26.9. It is encouraging to note that Powers, Walter, and Dunn are freshmen and Sermarini is a sophomore.

The team beat Albright, Franklin & Marshall, P.M.C., Washington College, Lebanon Valley, Muhlenberg and Dickinson (in a triangular meet). Ursinus lost to Haverford, Swarthmore and Johns Hopkins (in a triangular meet).

Dennis Wilson was voted captain for 1963. Robert Carney was selected as the most valuable track man.

The following school records were established this year:

Robert Carney broke his own record of 46' 10" in the shot, with a put of 48' 3".

Tony Sermarini set a new javelin record of 195' 3", breaking his old record of 191' 51/2".

Freshman Peter Dunn broke the 440 record of :51.0 by running a :50.9.

The relay team of Tony Sermarini, Fred Powers, Tom Walter, and Peter Dunn lowered the mile relay record from 3:33.2 to 3:26.9.

Captain Peter Wise will be missed for his fine high and low hurdle performances and his high jumping. In this year's M.A.S.C.A.C. Championship at Rutgers, after winning his high hurdle heat in :15.7, he finished fourth in the finals. In the low hurdle finals won in :24.6, he finished a close third. These were fine performances and a fitting way to end a good track career at Ursinus. Pete also ran on the winning relay team in three dual meets. He holds the current Albright-Ursinus meet record of :25.5 in the low hurdles.

Bob Carney was defeated only once in the shot and discus and placed second in the discus and fourth in the shot at the Middle Atlantic Championships. Besides setting a new school record of 48' 3" in the shot, he holds five meet records in the shot and two in the discus.

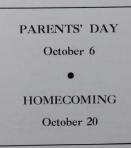

Dick Woodruff won the broad jump in every meet but the one with Haverford, and placed second there. He took third place at the Middle Atlantics. He holds three meet records in the broad jump and also holds the school record in the hop, step and jump.

To honor the outstanding work and success of their coach, Ray Gurzynski, '39, the team feted him at a banquet and presented him with a pen and pencil desk set.

Sieb Pancoast's batmen posted a 10-6 record and copped the Middle Atlantic Conference, Southern College Division, crown.

Barrie Williamson, a junior math major from Norristown and the team's third basemen, was voted Most Valuable Player in the Middle Atlantic Conference, Southern College Division. He belted a healthy .352 on a 17 for 48 basis, scored eleven runs, batted in nine, and stole eight bases. (Some big league teams have already shown interest in Williamson.)

Bill Graver, a junior political science major from Glenside and Ursinus' catcher, was named to the Division All-Star Team. Senior Terry Shaner made the second team, and Doug Harper, Bob Wighton and Bill Degenhardt received honorable mention. Sophomore Chuck Schaal, with a 4-0 record and 2.30 earned-run average, was top pitcher in the Division.

Women's Sports

Ursinus girls continued in their winning ways during the Spring. The badminton team completed its eighth undefeated season; this year they posted six wins. The swimming team had a record-breaking 7-2 record, and in the Eastern States Intercollegiate Championships they tied for second place.

Results of the other sports are as follows: lacrosse, 5-1; softball, 3-1; and tennis, 4-2.

The College Seal

Since the founding of Ursinus College in 1869, the corporate seal has been impressed on innumerable documents and facsimiles, in color and in black and white; it has been used on the catalogues and other literature of the College, on stationery, stickers, banners and the like. Through the years no replica of the seal in colored relief has ever been displayed on the Campus.

On May 31, two days before Alumni Day, there appeared on the wall of the Alumni Memorial Library, opposite the entrance, a shield-mounted seal in enameled and gold relief, a gift to the College by the Class of 1913.

Among the various materials used in its fashioning were Bristol and hardboard, layered under pressure, together with metal, wood and leather. The gold letters of the legend "COLLEGIUM URSINI-SUPER FIRMUM-A. D 1869—FUNDAMENTUM DEI" ar incised in the circular red background and are framed by two rows of gold buttons. The portrait of Zacharia Ursinus is of sculptured leather, coveree with 23K gold leaf, and is emphasize by its background of black. The seah twenty-three inches in diameter, i mounted on a shield, finished in satiblack enamel, the molded edge of which is gold covered.

The project was planned, designe and handcrafted by Ellwood S. Paisle of the Class of 1913 and a member of the Board of Directors of Ursinu College.
