Dear Henri:

Things seem to be coming along nicely for our gala event on Sunday afternoon, August 20th.

The University of California at San Diego has very kindly allowed us to use their "Little Theatre" on that occasion, which seats 230 people, just about the right amount as far as I am concerned.

Although I tried to arrange for a Steinway grand piano, it seems that the University has an agreement with Baldwin that they will furnish their grand piano at no cost except transportation to and fro which is $150.00, to which I have agreed. I trust this is satisfactory with you.

Our good friends, who are outstanding in university circles throughout the United States, Mr. & Mrs. William W. Gordon, 6485 Avenida Wilfredo, La Jolla, have kindly agreed to host your pianist in their home for either one or two nights. It occurs to me that it might be well for you and Emmy to bring him down with you on Saturday, arriving at the La Jolla Beach & Tennis Club prior to lunch time. Thus it will give all of us a chance to see the "Little Theatre" and to check all details.

All meals for you and your accompanist will naturally be taken care of by the Kelloggs at the Beach Club.

Under separate cover, I am sending you and Emmy an invitation which I hope you approve of and which is going out the end of this week or the beginning of next, so that our invited guests will not have accepted previous invitations.

Please don't hesitate to call me on the telephone: (714) 454-7126, ext. 262 at the office or 454-4598 at home after 6:00 p.m.

Alice joins me in affectionate regards to you both, and we are looking forward with great anticipation to your concert.

As per your request, I have invited Dr. and Mrs. Martin Kamen, Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Geisel and Dr. Joseph Pennario. Dr. and Mrs. Kamen have been invited to the dinner. Should there be others whom you wish to attend the concert and reception, please let me know.

Cordially and sincerely,

"Bill" Kellogg
