December 9th, 1926.

R.H. Walker,
621 West State Street,
Jacksonville, Florida.

Dear Mrs. Walker:

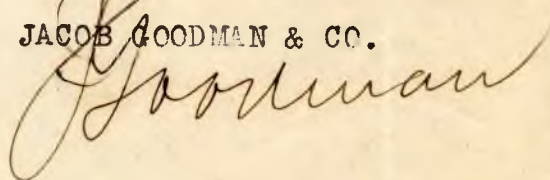

We received your letter of December 6th, with reference to the sale of your house at 206 West 122nd Street, New York City, and in reply would say that if you can sell your property for $18,000.00 or even $17,500.00 we would suggest that you do so, as it will give you a nice profit and you can then reinvest the money in something else.

Your tenant has paid $120.00 on account of December's rent and promised to pay the balance by Saturday. As soon as we will receive the rent in full we will send you our check.

As soon as we receive from you the name and address of the prospective purchaser, we will communicate with him immediately.

Yours very truly,

JACOB GOODMAN & CO.
