Honorable Daniel K. Inouye
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Inouye:

Tsuneo Morikawa, one of the past President's of Club 100 and my Management Analyst at the VA Regional Office, will be retiring from Federal Service after more than 35 years, 31 of which he served with the VA Regional Office in Honolulu.

To honor him on his prospective retirement, we are having a banquet on Friday, June 3, 1977, at the Holiday Inn in Waikiki. Incidentally, that will be his last day on the job.

Since Tsuneo has served as my right hand man ever since you got me started with the Veterans Administration in 1963, Dan, I am most indebted to him and want everything to be the best at his retirement party.

Will you join us, Dan, by expressing your best wishes to him on his retirement. It will surely enhance the importance of the occasion for a most deserving employee.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM C. OSHIRO
Director
