Dear Ted:

I am pleased to learn that your new Ramsay store at Pensacola Street will open after many months of hard work and planning. May I take this means to extend my warm aloha and congratulations on this achievement.

I sincerely hope all of Ramsay's employees, suppliers and friends will enjoy a wonderful opening reception on Tuesday. I also wish you and other leaders of the Pacway Corporation continued success in all your business enterprises and an especially bright future with the new store.

Aloha,

Dear Dan:

Thank you for your very thoughtful note, shared with our entire corporate family.

Pacway, it's Ramsay and other marketing divisions were subjects of a recent feature article by Builders Report Pacific magazine in their September, 1976 issue.

A reprint is enclosed for your reading.

Though the article is often flattering, it describes Pacway and its' aspirations with reasonable accuracy, including brother Robert's important role in the decision making process.

Significant reference and credit is also given the SBA for, despite the tussle they gave us, our entire early effort would most surely have collapsed without their participation.

While Pacway is not out of the woods yet, we have made sufficient progress to justify a continued optimistic outlook.

If honest back breaking hardwork counts for anything, Pacway has every right to enjoy a modicum of success.

Meanwhile, please accept our sincere thanks for taking time to remember.

Respectfully yours,

Ted Takase, Jr.

President/General Manager
