WEDDING COSTUME
LA ALBERCA, SALAMANCA

FROM PHOTOGRAPHS
IN THE COLLECTION OF
THE HISPANIC SOCIETY
OF AMERICA

WITH COMPARATIVE MATERIAL

A1815

CASTILLA
(Detail)
BY JOAQUIN SOROLLA Y BASTIDA
New York. The Hispanic Society of America

The wedding costume (traje de vistas) of the village of La Alberca was previously the gift of a bridegroom to his bride. At the present time it is worn on ceremonial occasions, such as the religious festival of August fifteenth, when a young woman dons it in order to present her offering to the Virgen de la Asunción in the Plaza Mayor. It is said that there remain only three complete wedding costumes in the town.
