SERVICE

Xi Psi Chapter gave some of their time to help with the Gerontology Fair on September 25 and 26. They helped direct traffic and danced with some of the people during the dance. It was a fun time for all.

Xi Psi Chapter also had a wiener roast with the Medco Nursing Home on September 28. Some members finally learned how to cook weiners without a microwave. We also visited with the residents of the nursing home. We like to thank Barry Sanders for going out and collecting wood for the fire late one night.

Some members of Xi Psi Chapter helped with the "Walk for Life" on October 24. They made sure the walkers stayed on course and handed out refreshments.

Also some members helped out with the Kentucky Academy of Science on October 30 and 31. They helped out with the slide projectors during the lectures. Those who did this project enjoyed the lectures and the work.

On October 27 the spooks and globins came out in M^CLean Hall for our Potter Home Treat-or- Trick night. Beth "Betty Camper" Kemper did an excellent job organizing this event. Everyone who was involved with this project had a great time.

Wendy's 10k Classic came to town on October 31 and Xi Psi helped out. We did road blocks this year which was alot of fun.

Xi Psi also is helping the university's classical radio station with their annual Radio Drive. Members spend their time answering phones for pledges to the station.

NATIONAL SERVICE DAY

Xi Psi had a great response to their Bowl-a-thon for their national service project. Almost 30 members bowled for St. Judes and raised almost $500.00. Greg Powell was one of our finer bowlers with his original bowling throw under the legs. Everyone had a great time!!!!!!

Sectionals

Xi Psi Chapter would like to thank U.T.-Martin for the great sectional they put on. We really enjoyed ourselves and learned alot. We can't wait for the next sectionals at Tennessee Tech in the spring.

Sectional News

Congratulations goes out to our new Section 70 Sergeant-of-Arms Beth Kemper. Good Luck with the new job.

Social

October 30 we had Halloween Party at the home of Mindy Peterie. Everyong dressed up as their altered-ego. We had a witch, a pregnant housewife waiting for Abner, a clown, Rambo, a couple of cats, a 50's dude and Alpha Phi Omega Man arriving late. Pledges got to see actives like they have never seen them before.
