Quinton Holloway, a man who lived life fully, enjoyed a closeness with his children and grandchildren—he liked having them around at all times, relished time spent with his brothers and sisters including two special brothers reminiscing on times of yore, and he shared and cherished an unbreakable unity with his lifelong love, Clara Brunson Holloway. From childhood to accepting Christ, marriage, cultivating a family and employment relations, Quinton touched many.

He possessed a great capacity for love; this love flourished and was made manifest out of his first love for his Creator and Savior, the Lord, Jesus Christ of whose goodness he loved to witness and whom he loved to praise and to worship. Having an AGAPE LOVE, allowed Quinton to love Clara as Christ loved the church, to build a bond with his children, brothers, sisters, uncle and aunts and to impart wisdom and instruction to his grandchildren, great grandchildren, nephews and nieces. His love was not cut off at immediate or biological family; as Quinton didn't meet strangers; his love reached to extended family, a multitude of cousins, co-workers and friends to uplift and encourage all.

He found pleasure in hunting, fishing, mechanical work with brothers and conversation with his sisters. Home was Quinton's special place where love, joy and knowledge were shared at family dinner time and holidays and where love, joy and laughter were shared while watching the Looney Tunes, especially, "Tom and Jerry", Monday Night Raw, Golfing, the Atlanta Falcons, Westerns and the Los Angeles Lakers, mostly Kobe Bryant.

Quinton is and will always be remembered for his legacy of love, peace, unity and family, characteristics and things, which he demonstrated and believed in strongly. His request of us is, "Rejoice—he's alright; Do Not Weep—he is at rest with the Heavenly Father!" He bore his cross so that he can receive his crown.

HE LOVED US ALL!
