Book Talk:
Hiding in Plain Sight: How a Jewish Girl Survived Europe's Heart of Darkness

Monday, October 23 at 6:00 p.m.
Room 1008 and via Zoom

Join us for an insightful evening with Pieter van Os as he speaks about his book, Hiding in Plain Sight: How a Jewish Girl Survived Europe's Heart of Darkness, in conversation with Professor Jocelyn Getgen Kestenbaum.

Pieter van Os is an author and journalist who writes for NRC Handelsblad and De Groene Amsterdammer. His published works include the books The Netherlands in Focus, Father and Son Receive the Spirit (with Henk van Os) and We Understand Each Other Perfectly, about his years as a parliamentary journalist. After living in Warsaw, Poland for four years, he currently resides in Tirana, Albania. In 2020 he won the Brusse Prize for best Dutch-language journalistic book of the year with Hiding in Plain Sight.

The event will include a Q&A with the author, and books will be available for purchase at the event, where the author will sign copies.

Limited spaces are available for the evening, so please register to guarantee your seat.

Attendees are also invited to stay after the talk for a relaxed reception with refreshments.
