March 14, 1918.

Dear Gene:- I received your good letter and the pictures.

Some of them are good and some are not good of me.

The sun was so strong. What a callum hasn't sent me the book yet but I'll answer it alright if as soon as she sends it.

Listen, Gene what I want most is some smokin' tobacco and a little candy or cake or something you know. I'm smoking a pipe, no coffin nail.

You might tell Uncle Holly and Roy to send me about a piano box full of

"P. A." or "Wigwam", or "5 Bis."
I'm busted so hard?
couldn't buy boxing gloves
for an ant. That's what comes of buying Liberty Boudc.
Ask Holly and Doc and all the folks how they getting on with their work and if they are still selling postage
stamps in Westerville.
Give ^{the} Misses ^{+ Mrs.} Mark ~~my~~ my regards and thanks for their part in the pictures.
Thanking you again give
I am, as B, H,
but happy, your broken, busted,
Nephew
Cornell.
