Maryland C. P. A. Law Amended

The Maryland legislature has passed a bill amending the C. P. A. law of that state and providing for reciprocity.

The text of the amending act follows:

An act to amend article 75 A of the code of public general laws of Maryland (BAGBY'S edition), title Public Accountant, by the addition of a new section to be designated section 5 A.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, that article 75 A of the code of public general laws of Maryland, (BAGBY'S edition), title Public Accountant, be and the same is hereby amended by adding a new section to follow section 5, to be known as section 5 A, said section to read as follows:

5 A. Any citizen of the United States or person who has declared his intention of becoming such citizen, over the age of twenty-one years, who holds a valid and unrevoked certificate as a certified public accountant, or the equivalent thereof, issued by or under the authority of any other state of the United States, or the District of Columbia, or any territory of the United States, or by or under the authority of a foreign nation, showing that the holder thereof has complied with the laws of such state, district, territory or nation, who desires to practise the profession of accountancy in the state of Maryland, shall present such certificate or its equivalent to the board of examiners of certified public accountants of this state, accompanied by a written application in form to be prescribed by the said board, with such information as said board may require as to the character and qualification of such applicant, and shall pay the said board the fee usually charged for examinations, and if the said board shall be satisfied that the standing of the said applicant and the requirements for a certificate as a certified public accountant of the state, district, territory or nation issuing the same are substantially equivalent to those established by the laws of this state, the said board may, in its discretion, register said certificate in a book to be provided by the said board for said purpose, and shall recommend to the governor the issuance to such applicant of a special certificate of registration designating the state, district, territory or nation issuing the original certificate to said applicant, which special certificate of registration, when issued by the governor, shall entitle the holder to practise as such certified public accountant, and use the abbreviation "C. P. A." in this state; provided, however, that no such special certificate shall be issued unless the state, district, territory or nation issuing the original certificate extends similar privileges to the certified public accountants of the state of Maryland.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
