Join with youth from high schools throughout the Birmingham metro area in this all-day summit developed and led by young people. More than forty local high schools have participated in the annual Teen Summit. Each school selects four to six teens to participate.

The summit schedule includes two plenary sessions and four breakout sessions. Past plenary speakers have included Fred Shuttlesworth, Dorothy Cotton, Doug Jones, James Bevel, James Rotch, and others.

Admission is free. Lunch and a continental breakfast are provided.

The 9th Annual Teen Summit is sponsored by the Birmingham Pledge Foundation and the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute in partnership with 16th Street Baptist Church, Girls, Inc., Greater Birmingham Ministries, Jefferson County Department of Human Resources, ¡HICA!, National Conference for Community and Justice (NCCJ), Peace Birmingham, YouthServe, YWCA, and others.
