Dear Madam:

We received your letter with reference to premises 206 West 122nd Street, and in reply would say that we shall be pleased to do everything we can to try and sell your property, but at the present time the tenant is not in a position to buy it as she has no ready cash whatsoever.

However, we suggest that you sell it to whomsoever you can, as we understand from your letter that you had quite a number of inquiries and some offers. We assure you that we will keep the matter in mind at all times, and should we get any offer on the property we will immediately communicate with you.

Yours very truly,

JACOB GOODMAN &amp; CO.
