The Movement

This is a movement
to make a bowel movement
of the highway

and give back the land to:
the people,
the forests,
the parks,
and the public restrooms — maybe if we didn't have to
pee so bad
we'd have the
patience to listen.

“But where will all the traffic go?”
That's what everyone wants to know.

What will happen
to the screaming child of the 20th century if we tear down its sprawling home?

It will go to Hell, of course, where it came from — those hoping to commute in and out of Hell
on a daily basis
will have to stop
for pedestrians,

but this inconvenience will not affect the economy of Hell,

on which economists are betting big.
