

THE Inauguration OF ERIC R. JENSEN

ALUMNI SHOWCASE

Sixty Minutes with Six Successful and Inspiring Graduates

FRIDAY, APRIL 1 — 1:00 P.M. • HANSEN STUDENT CENTER

Free and open to the public

KEVIN DUNN '77, Drama

From McPherson Theatre to the Emmy Awards

- Actor appearing in more than 80 films and TV episodes
- “Ben Cafferty” on HBO’s Veep, Emmy winner for Outstanding Comedy Series
- “Dr. Taylor” in CBS hit new medical drama Code Black
- “Ron Witwicky” in the Transformers films

CARLINA TAPIA-RUANO J.D., '77, History

From Cuba to immigration law to Congressional hearings

- National leader in immigration law
- Named to Woodward/White’s Best Lawyers in America
- First Hispanic elected as president of the American Immigration Lawyers Association
- Repeatedly named a “Super Lawyer” in Illinois

DAVE KINDRED '63, English

From Argus editor to Hall of Fame Sportswriter

- National Sportswriter of the Year
- Author of more than 10 books
- Has covered every major sports event in America along with the Olympics and Wimbledon
- Named National Hall of Fame Sportswriter in 2007

DEMETRIA KALODIMOS '81, Music

From Presser Hall to TV anchor and documentary producer

- Emmy Award-winning news anchor at WSMV-TV in Nashville
- National Headliner and Investigative Reporters and Editors awards
- Established Genuine Human Productions, making documentaries about real people
- Music video director for Americana artist Mary Gauthier and singer-songwriter Shawn Camp

MARCUS DUNLOP '08, Business and Economics

From IWU Academic All-American to Wall Street

- Investment banking analyst for Goldman Sachs
- First-hand witness to the financial meltdown of 2008
- Joined HG Vora Capital Management, a New York-based hedge fund, in 2009
- Evaluates potential investments for major investors such as pension funds and endowments

STEPHEN ONDRA, M.D. '80, Biology

From pre-med to neurosurgery to White House policy advisor

- Senior vice president and chief medical officer, Health Care Service Corporation, nation’s largest customer-owned health insurer
- Former senior health advisor in President Barack Obama’s administration
- Nationally recognized neurosurgeon, former CMO, Northwestern Memorial Hospital
- Decorated medical veteran of the Gulf War, earning a Bronze Star and Army Commendation Medal

