Dear Roger:

Thanks very much for taking the time to judge the MENTOR Moot Court finals last Monday.

The MENTOR Moot Court has become a significant activity for the public schools of New York City. Teams involving hundreds of students from most of MENTOR's forty-two schools, compete and are coached by lawyers from firms with whom they are paired in MENTOR. The fact that the final argument was heard by Judges from the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit was appreciated by all of the students, teachers and lawyers who took part.

Thanks also for your introductory remarks, which helped to place the event into perspective for the students.

All the best.

Sincerely yours,

The Honorable Roger J. Miner
