Dear Judge Miner:

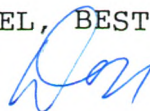

I was sorry to learn that your calendar is booked solid through next Spring, although I was not surprised given your ability to keep yourself in constant motion. Your trip this Fall sounds like it will be a wonderful experience and I am anxious to hear about it when you return. Please consider my invitation to speak to our chapter of the Federalist Society to be a standing one and, with some luck, maybe we will be able to see you next year. Please contact me if and when you see an opening in your calendar.

I am glad you enjoyed the book. The copyright notice relating to the Clerk's office of the Northern District of New York was what first caught my attention, although I saw a little in the text relating to the federal system. Nonetheless, I thought that descriptions of nineteenth century New York State laws--such as those relating to bounties for trapping wolves--would be of interest.

I look forward to reading the text of your speeches from this past Spring, and I am glad to hear that Jackie and you continue to do well.

Very truly yours,

MICHAEL, BEST & FRIEDRICH
