The Bennett Center for Judaic Studies at Fairfield University was established in 1994 through a $1.5 million endowment from Carl and Dorothy Bennett, who had in previous years sponsored an annual Jewish lecture series at Fairfield University. On October 18, 1994, Dr. Ellen M. Umansky was formally installed as the inaugural Carl and Dorothy Bennett Chair in Judaic Studies. She served as the Chair and Director of Judaic Studies at Fairfield University from 1994 until her retirement in 2022. Through her work, and with the support of numerous campus and community partners, the Bennett Center has enriched Fairfield University by fostering continued learning experiences and campus-wide awareness about Jewish history and culture, ethical values, and religious observances. Course offerings have increased from a single class about Judaic studies to a dedicated undergraduate program with a rich course catalog.

Scope and Contents

The Bennett Center for Judaic Studies Poster and Video Collection is composed of posters and video recordings pertaining to the programming put on by the Bennett Center for Judaic Studies (also called the Carl and Dorothy Bennett Center for Judaic Studies and the Bennett Center), including guest lectures, concerts, cultural events, and annual events like Holocaust Remembrance Services, the Daniel Pearl World Music Days Concert, and the Jacoby-Lunin Humanitarian Lectureship. It contains material from 1994-2022. The collection includes both the physical versions and digital copies of 180 color posters and 145 event recordings.

Series One: Dr. Ellen M. Umansky Poster Collection, 1994-2020. This series contains 180 color posters (paper; color illustrations; 11 x 17 inches) advertising the lectures, programs, and special events put on by the Bennett Center for Judaic Studies. These posters were inscribed to and collected by Dr. Ellen M. Umansky, former director of the Bennett Center, at the time of the event. Digital scans of each poster are available as text-searchable PDFs. Posters are arranged chronologically by event date.

Series 2: Bennett Center Event Recordings, 1994-2022. This series contains 145 video recordings of the lectures, programs, and special events put on by the Bennett Center for Judaic Studies. Recordings were originally captured on VHS tape (videocassette; sound; color; 1/2 inch) or DVD (videodisc; sound; color; 4 3/4 inch) format. The digitized versions of each recording are available in MP4 format. Videos are arranged physically by format, and then chronologically by event date. Digital files are arranged chronologically by event date.

Additional Notes

Digitization: The color posters and event recordings in the collection were digitized to preserve and make the material accessible to the public for research and educational use. The color posters were originally scanned as image files, but for the purposes of making the files text-searchable were converted to PDFs.

Historical Notes

The Bennett Center for Judaic Studies

The Bennett Center for Judaic Studies at Fairfield University was established in 1994 through a $1.5 million endowment from Carl and Dorothy Bennett, who had in previous years sponsored an annual Jewish lecture series at Fairfield University. On October 18, 1994, Dr. Ellen M. Umansky was formally installed as the inaugural Carl and Dorothy Bennett Chair in Judaic Studies. She served as the Chair and Director of Judaic Studies at Fairfield University from 1994 until her retirement in 2022. Through her work, and with the support of numerous campus and community partners, the Bennett Center has enriched Fairfield University by fostering continued learning experiences and campus-wide awareness about Jewish history and culture, ethical values, and religious observances. Course offerings have increased from a single class about Judaic studies to a dedicated undergraduate program with a rich course catalog.

Through the Bennett Center, Fairfield University continues to be committed to building a bridge of understanding between the Jewish and Jesuit traditions. The Bennett Center has established a permanent and growing reputation in the Greater Fairfield Community through inspiring lectures and annual programs, working in collaboration with the Judaic Studies program, the Center for Catholic Studies, Campus Ministry, local Jewish community organizations, the Regina A. Quick Center, and more.

The Center receives financial support from numerous generous individuals and foundations, including the Carl and Dorothy Bennett Foundation, the Adolph and Ruth Schnurmacher Foundation, Larry Roberts and Suzanne Novik, Andrew and Robert Feigenson and family, David and Edith Chaifetz, and the Frank Jacoby Foundation maintained by Debby and David Zieff. Through these gifts, the Bennett Center has brought world-renowned lecturers to the University, including Pulitzer Prize finalist Nathan Englander; The New York Times Op-Ed columnist and author, Tom Friedman; Rabbi and theologian Irving "Yitz" Greenberg; lawyer and activist Khizr Khan; American diplomat and author Dennis Ross; American Jewish historian, Jonathan Sarna; former US Ambassador to Israel, Dan Shapiro; Meet the Press moderator, Chuck Todd; painter, sculptor, and photorealist, Audrey Flack; and Nobel Peace Prize winner and author, Elie Wiesel.

Dr. Ellen M. Umansky

Dr. Umansky graduated from Wellesley College with a B.A. in 1972 and earned her master's degree in religion from Yale Divinity School in 1974. She received a Ph.D. in Judaic studies from Columbia University in 1981. Before becoming Fairfield University's first Bennett Professor of Judaic Studies in 1994, Dr. Umansky worked as a professor of religion at Emory University (1982-1989) and as an adjunct associate professor at Hebrew Union College (1990-1994). She also served as a visiting professor at Haverford College and Vassar College during this time. She has written countless academic articles and five books, including Lily Montagu and the Advancement of Liberal Judaism: From Vision to Vocation (Studies in Women & Religion) (1983), Four Centuries of Jewish Women's Spirituality: A Sourcebook (2004), and From Christian Science to Jewish Science: Spiritual Healing and American Jews (2005).

Following her appointment in 1994, Dr. Umansky worked tirelessly to develop the Judaic Studies program, expanding the curriculum and garnering sponsorship for numerous events and annual lectures, including the annual Jacoby-Lunin Humanitarian Lectureship, the Daniel Pearl World Music Days Concert, the Bennett Lecture Series, the Diane Feigenson Lecture in Jewish Literature, and the annual Fairfield Holocaust Remembrance Service, among others. She collected and preserved the posters used to advertise these events, many of which were inscribed to her. Dr. Umansky worked with the University Archives to digitize these posters, as well as the video recordings of these events, helping not only to preserve Fairfield's history, but also the legacies and voices of the Jewish community.

Dr. Umansky was the 2009 recipient of Fairfield University's Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Faculty Vision Award and the 2012 recipient of the Fairfield University Alumni Association's Distinguished Faculty/Administrator Award. She served as the President of the Southern Jewish Historical Society, was a member of the Board of Directors of the Stimulus Foundation of Paulist Press, a member of the Academic Advisory Board of the Jewish Women's Archive, and a member of the Academic Council of the American Jewish Historical Society. She was the second person ever to be awarded an honorary membership for Fairfield University's honor society, Phi Beta Kappa. Dr. Umansky was also a member of Alpha Sigma Nu and Theta Alpha Kappa.
