Foreword

THE CLASS OF 1960 is unique in that it is the first to publish an edition of The Dolphin. Here is an attempt to capture between its covers, a year of work and play and participation.

Page by page is filled with a multitude of realities which are too intangible to be related in printed matter, perhaps in some small way we can preserve the friendships and experiences we hold so dearly.

If this book will serve to bridge the past and bring to mind the priceless memories of joy and pleasures of the year just passed, it will have served its purpose.

Dedication

For many years of watchful care, we dedicate this book to those we love—Our Parents.

Class History

"Good Morning, Mr. Mathews," was the greeting of 27 proud yet unsure pupils in September, 1957. We were to continue to wave the banner of success as we had in the past. The president of the Freshman class was Alfred Richard. As Freshmen we were happy because many of us were able to participate in the clubs and sports, and especially the high school play.

As the sands of time continued to shift forward, we were thrilled to attain a greater hour, the sophomore hour. We were under the leadership of Mr. Reid, and Charles Payton served as president. But our goal was far from being attained, so we continued to prepare ourselves.

Then we were Juniors--thinking of more mature things in life. With Mrs. I. H. Love as our advisor, we sponsored the Junior and Senior Prom. Again we took active roles in sports and the organizations of the school. Myra Miller and Charles Payton were elected president and vice president, respectively.

Now as the day is drawing to an end, we, the Senior class, come to a temporary destination. Though we number only sixteen, we are confident and determined pupils. Mr. E. R. Newton is our competent advisor. Jessie Murphy is the president, and Dewey Dixon is serving as the vice president. Mary Hall was elected "Miss Senior". However our immediate concerns are the school's yearbook and the coming commencement activities, we hope that each of us will reach for still higher goals.

Now as the history drifts into the present, we wish to pause for a moment to say our journey will always be a cherished memory in our hearts as the evening hour approaches.

Myra Miller

Class Poem

Four years ago together,
A Freshman class at George Fish stood,
With excellent intentions,
That something would turn out good.

You've guided us through the maze of learning,
Though away our steps are turning,
And for our goal we are yearning,
Ev'ry heart still burns with love for you.

Now comes the hour to say farewell,
To break the ties we loved so dear,
The time to leave our friendships here,
Where sunny thoughts will always dwell.

Ruth Anderson

Class Song

(Tune - Fairest Lord Jesus)

Dear old George Fish High,
Now the time has come for us to part,
You will always remain in our hearts,
You were always so faithful,
To answer our calls
And we appreciate all you've done.

We love you dearly,
Dear old George Fish High,
And we are sad, now we must depart,
We do hate to leave you,
Very sadly we do
With lots of sorrow in our hearts.

To our devoted parents, we give our kindest regards and our sincere thanks.

To our beloved school, we leave our loyalty and quietness caused by our absence.

To the Junior class, we leave our ranks as seniors and may you fill them as courageously and faithfully as we have done.

To the Sophomore class, we leave our hope for a successful future.

To the Freshman class, we leave our patience.

To the Basketball team, goes our hope for a winning season.

To Lillie M. Miller, Ruth Anderson wills her versatility.

To anyone who needs it, "the Grady Cole Bluff".

To Sam Willie Starr, Dewey Dixon wills his shyness.

To Willie M. Perry, Doris Green wills her quietness.

To Annie Fetherson, Katrina Ivey wills her pleasant smile.

To Willie H. Brown, Myra Miller wills her position on the annual staff.
