My dear Susan

25th July 1800 - London

Your Sister and Maria wrote to you by the Packet, and will probably write again by the next one, which I am sorry to find is now the only conveyance between us, at least nearly so. I have by accident heard of this opportunity, and knowing your anxiety to hear often from one of the family - I shall write only a few lines to say that we continued all in good health but cannot say at present, one word about returning. I often thank God that we did not embark in the Science what an escape we had - Maria gave you an extract from our mid. letter - I have the satisfaction to tell you that very honourable mention has been made of them in the Gazette, which I ^{will} send to you by the next opportunity. Pl: was very well a few days ago, but his Regtⁱⁿ not complete they will not be compleys on the present expeditions to Spain & Portugal - two or three of which have already saild - Remember me, and all of us, especially to those who are interested about us - our dear little Wm is well and improves daily, she goes to her studies every

They from one to five - she is learning - English - French, writing - music - Dancing &c. &c. - I hunt all the news from Poland for our friends home, but have not yet seen it - Tell him when you write that he has our best wishes for his health and happiness - Give our kind love to Peter, James - M.^{rs} A. - &c. &c. - Tell Molly & Buckley that if they much longer in this country that I shall send for them all - Rob. & Jane are well & send their best love to them - God bless you my Dear Susan

Your Affectionate
