

Dr. Thomas C. Barker Appointed Director of School of Hospital Administration

Dr. Thomas C. Barker, project director of the Michigan Health and Social Security Research Institute, Inc., has been named director of MCV's school of hospital administration and Arthur Graham Glasgow professor of hospital administration.

Announcement of his appointment, effective July 1, was made by Charles P. Cardwell, vice president, hospitals and community relations, and acting director of the school of hospital administration. Doctor Barker succeeds the late Robert S. Hudgens, who died June 10, 1966.

A native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, he attended Loras College and Coe College before entering the State University of Iowa where he received his B.S., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees.

Prior to joining the Michigan Health and Social Security Research Institute, Inc., in 1965, Doctor Barker had served as assistant professor of hospital and health administration at the College of Medicine, State University of Iowa and as U. S. Public Health Service doctoral fellow at the State University's Graduate College and College of Medicine.

In addition, he has held consultative positions at Wayne State University, Brandeis University, State University of Iowa, and Mercy Hospital in Iowa City. Doctor Barker's major research activities and publications have centered in the medical and health fields.

A veteran of two years' service with the Navy, he holds the rank of Lieutenant Commander in the Naval Reserve.

Doctor Barker is a member of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, American College of Hospital Administrators, American Hospital Association, American Public Health Association, the medical sociology section of the American Sociological Association, and Catholic Hospital Association. He is group vice-chairman of the Michigan Medical Care Discussion Group.

Doctor Barker is married and has four children.

MCV RECEIVES GRANTS FOR MEB ADDITIONS

The Medical College of Virginia has received $863,757 in Federal grants toward the construction of additional floors atop the Medical Education Building.

The Public Health Service awarded a grant of $385,757, and the National Institutes of Health awarded one for $478,000. The State has appropriated $864,110 for the additions.

Two stories will be added to the 10-story wing that parallels North Eleventh Street, and three stories will be added to the nine-story wing that parallels East Marshall Street. Construction is expected to begin in the late summer.

MCV Organizes New Disaster Plan

As many of our personnel know, MCV has had a disaster plan for a number of years—a plan to mobilize all available personnel and services to aid victims in the event of a major disaster in our area.

A new plan, under study for several months, was explained to the housestaff in February. The plan can be put into effect at any time and is oriented around the housestaff.

MCV officials envision a cooperative arrangement with other local hospitals for the future.

Now after the sabbath, toward the dawn of the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the sepulchre. And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone, and sat upon it. His appearance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow. And for fear of him the guards trembled and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has risen, as he said. Come see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and behold, he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him. Lo, I have told you." So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. And behold, Jesus met them and said, "Hail!" And they came up and took hold of his feet and worshipped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."—Matthew 28:1-10.

L. Daniel Crooks

Thomas R. Stennett

Crooks and Stennett Receive Promotions

L. Daniel Crooks, comptroller of the Medical College of Virginia since 1962, was promoted to the newly created position of vice-president—business and finance, effective March 1.

On the same date, Thomas R. Stennett, treasurer, was promoted to comptroller-treasurer.

A native Richmonder, Mr. Crooks is a 1941 graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute. He worked for the Navy Department during World War II and later joined the office of the State Auditor of Public Accounts. Mr. Crooks began his career with MCV in 1947 as an accountant. Advanced to chief accountant in 1951, he served as treasurer from 1958 until he was promoted to comptroller.

Mr. Stennett, a native of Newport News, is also a VPI graduate. He has taken additional courses at the University of Kentucky and Richmond Professional Institute. Mr. Stennett, who joined MCV in 1953 as a cost accountant, served subsequently as internal auditor and chief accountant prior to his promotion to treasurer in 1962. He was in the Marine Corps during World War II.

TELEPHONE DIRECTORY CHANGES AND ADDITIONS

The following new employee should be added to the MCV telephone directory:

George T. Glenn, 8743, 8744, budget and financial planning officer, MCV West Hospital-1 N.

Stoneburner Lecture Series

SYMPOSIUM ON CLINICAL PHARMACOLOGY AND THERAPEUTICS TO BE MARCH 30-31

Dr. Stewart G. Wolfe, professor of medicine and chairman of the department of medicine at the University of Oklahoma school of medicine, will be the twentieth Stoneburner lecturer.

His first lecture on Use of Placebos and Meaning of Controls will be given at 2:00 p.m. on March 30; the second on Pharmacology of Sudden Death will be delivered at 2:00 p.m. on March 31.

Guest faculty members are: Dr. Leighton E. Cluff, University of Florida; Dr. John P. Colmore, University of Oklahoma; Dr. Herman C. B. Denber, New York Medical College; Dr. Celso-Ramon Garcia, University of Pennsylvania; Dr. Leon I. Goldberg, Emory University; Dr. James F. Holland, State University of New York at Buffalo; Dr. Raymond N. Houde, Cornell University; Dr. George Gee Jackson, University of Illinois; Dr. Calvin M. Kunin, University of Virginia; Dr. Maurice McGregor, McGill University; Colonel Robert H. Moser, William Beaumont General Hospital; Dr. Herbert A. Saltzman, Duke University; Dr. John J. Schwab, University of Florida; and Dr. Robert S. Schwartz, Tufts University.

MCV faculty members on the program will be: Dr. William Regelson, Dr. David W. Richardson, and Dr. Albert J. Wasserman.

Attendance at the symposium is applicable for 11 hours of accreditation by the American Academy of General Practice. All lectures will be held in Baruch Auditorium in the Egyptian Building. Although there will be no charge for the two Stoneburner Lectures, there will be a $25.00 charge for the series, except for members of the faculty, members of the University of Virginia faculty, physicians at McGuire VA Hospital, members of any housestaff, and medical students.

Complete programs are available from the office of the director of continuing education, MEB-131.

All of these grants provide a stipend of from $2,400 to $2,800 for the student, depending on how many years he has been working toward his degree, plus a $2,500 educational allowance for tuition and supplies.

Dr. Daniel T. Watts, dean of the school of graduate studies, has announced that all of the grants will be used by students working in the area of the basic medical sciences, medicinal chemistry, or biology and genetics.

Doctor Watts also said that, in addition to the increased number of Federal grants, MCV will double the number of its own grants from the A. D. Williams Foundation for research and advanced education from five to 10.

Glenn Joins MCV As Budget Officer

George T. Glenn joined MCV on February 20 as budget and financial planning officer in the department of business and finance.

A native of Richmond, George Glenn received a B.S. degree in economics from the University of Virginia in 1949. He also has attended the University of Richmond evening school of business administration and the University of the Seven Seas, Whittier, California.

A veteran of two years' service in the Army, Mr. Glenn formerly was associated with J. D. Carnel and Sons, Inc. He is a former vestryman and treasurer of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church and a former director and vice-president of the Richmond Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Harvard Club Honors Dr. David M. Hume

Dr. David M. Hume, Stuart McGuire professor of surgery and chairman of the department of surgery since 1956, was honored by the Harvard Club of Virginia on March 6 for his accomplishments in medicine, particularly in the kidney transplant field and in medical education. Dr. Kinloch Nelson, dean of the school of medicine, presented Doctor Hume with a plaque on behalf of the Harvard Club.

Doctor Hume received his B.S. degree from Harvard in 1940 and his M.D. degree from the University of Chicago in 1943. Since 1949, he has authored and co-authored more than 100 medical papers. He enjoys membership in 20 medical and scientific societies.

THE HITCHING POST

Best wishes and congratulations to:

MISS JUDY BYRD and CHARLES J. PALUMBO, III, buildings and grounds, were married January 20.

MCV Receives Federal Grants for 15 Pre-Doctoral Fellowships

The Medical College of Virginia has been awarded 15 Federal grants totaling more than $84,000 in pre-doctoral fellowships for use by students in the school of graduate studies in the coming school year.

The Department of Health, Education, and Welfare's Office of Education awarded seven of the grants under Title IV of the National Defense Education Act. The National Science Foundation gave four of the grants and the National Institutes of Health, the other four.

Gifts and Grants Ahead of Last Year

Gifts and grants to the Medical College of Virginia totaled $580,850.64 for January and February.

Gifts and grants to MCV for the eight-month period, July, 1966-February, 1967, were $3,548,434.61, over a million dollars ahead of the same period last year.

Mrs. Ewing Crowned Queen at Dance For MCV Heart Fund

Mrs. Frances J. Ewing, secretary to the director of the school of hospital administration, was queen of Beta Sigma Phi sorority's Valentine Dance on February 11 that raised about $6,000 for the Congenital Heart Nursing Fund at MCV. The queen is the princess from the chapter (there are 15 area chapters) contributing the most money per member to the fund.

Mrs. Ewing represented Xi Phi Chapter, which contributed $800 ($61.54 per member). Xi Phi has won the competition for four years. During this period, the Xi Phi chapter alone has contributed about $3,300 to the Congenital Heart Nursing Fund.

Mrs. Ewing, who has served as ways and means chairman for her chapter for the last two years, states that her club raises money by giving fashion shows and luncheons, by selling Christmas cards and other items, and by raffles. Other club projects include making boxes and filling bags for patients at Eastern State Hospital.

Doctor Smith Elected President of Association of Virginia Colleges

Dr. R. Blackwell Smith, Jr., president of the Medical College of Virginia, was elected president of the Association of Virginia Colleges at the Association's 53rd annual meeting in Roanoke, February 24 and 25. Doctor Smith succeeds Dr. Perry F. Kendig, president of Roanoke College.

The Association's membership is composed of the public and private colleges operating in Virginia.

Rev. Prest Heads Pastoral Care Organization; Hoff and Lederer on Board

The Rev. A. P. L. Prest, Jr., supervisor of chaplaincy training in the Hospital Division, is head of a recently incorporated organization of doctors, clergymen, and educators who have united to assume responsibility for encouraging and fostering development of new forms of religious ministry in Virginia.

Also serving on the board of the Virginia Institute of Pastoral Care, Inc., is Dr. Ebbe C. Hoff, chairman of the division of psychiatric research and chairman of the division of alcoholic studies and rehabilitation, and Dr. Henry D. Lederer, chairman of the department of psychiatry.

The institute's articles of incorporation state that the goals will be "exclusively religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational in nature."

More specifically, this means that the institute will strive to develop new chaplaincy positions in hospitals, new professionally supervised and accredited pastoral counseling centers, new industrial and other creative forms of chaplaincy, and research projects in the areas of medical-religious and cultural problems.

Continuing Education Via TV Available in Classrooms

MCV, through the visual education department, has begun regularly scheduled television programs at the postgraduate level in all MCV classrooms with television receivers.

At the moment, the two series of programs—one for doctors, the other for nurses and other paramedical personnel—are available through the cooperation of the Network for Continuing Medical Education. Material from additional sources will be available in the future.

The postgraduate program for doctors can be seen on Mondays at 12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m. and on Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. in all MCV classrooms with television receivers.

The one for nurses and other paramedical personnel can be seen in the visual education department's preview

Adult Night Classes Begin at T. J. in April

Continuing education is a part of everyday life for MCV's professional personnel.

Some of the rest of us, however, don't apply such opportunities to ourselves.

Actually, continuing education is a must for continued growth for almost everyone. Realizing this, the distributive education department of the Richmond Public Schools offers courses on the management, supervisory, and employee levels in classes that meet one night a week from 7:00 to 9:00 at Thomas Jefferson High School, 4100 West Grace Street. Cost is nominal.

Classes such as management responsibilities, human relations in business, and planning for future growth will give MCV employees and others the opportunity to keep in touch with business trends, to learn new management skills, and to find many answers to everyday business problems.

New classes begin in April. If you are interested and desire additional information regarding courses offered, schedules, starting dates, fees, and registration, write the Registrar, Distributive Education Department, Richmond Public Schools, 809 East Marshall Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219 or call 649-4714. The MCV publications office (extension 8643) can furnish all of the above information except for that regarding registration.

room at 12:00 noon, 1:00, 7:00, and 8:00 p.m. on the second Tuesdays and Thursdays of each month. Anyone desiring to view these programs from classrooms should use the gray telephone to request that a particular set be turned on.

OBITUARY

Alfred T. Ferguson, collection manager, died February 9 after a long illness. A member of the credit department since 1960, he will be missed by his former associates.

Mrs. Ferguson wishes to extend her sincere thanks and appreciation to the personnel at MCV for their many kindnesses.

What's Going On in Our Schools and Courses

SCHOOL OF NURSING

DR. DORIS YINGLING, dean, and Miss SHIRLEY DOWNS, registrar, attended the Southern Regional Meeting of the College Entrance Examination Board in New Orleans, February 22-24. Doctor Yingling also attended a meeting at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor for representatives of universities operating schools of medicine, nursing, and pharmacy.

The school of nursing held Parents' Day on March 18. Miss NANCY KELLER, assistant professor, was advisor for the students who planned and held a very successful open house. During the evening, the students gave a spring musical: DR. LAURIE RENNIE, assistant professor of neurology, was master of ceremonies, and Miss ROMA LEE TAUNTON, assistant professor, was advisor for the musical.

Miss FAITH HOHLOCH, assistant professor, and Mrs. MAYME LACEY, assistant director of nursing service, have been selected to represent MCV on the Southern Regional Educational Board Council's project "Preparation of Faculty and Administrative Personnel on Cancer Nursing." The group participating in the project will meet at the M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute of the University of Texas in Houston for one week in March, two weeks in June, and one in October.

Mrs. JOAN MANCINI, instructor, moderated a reaction panel on the film A Study of Maternal Attitudes. Members of the panel were: Miss SARAH DILWORTH, assistant director for service and education IVNA; Mrs. MARIAN KALTRIDER, instructor, maternal-child nursing, Richmond Memorial Hospital; and Miss ANN DAVISSON, clinical specialist, pediatrics, Medical College of Virginia.

Members of the faculty participating were: Miss BETSY BRAMPTON, Mrs. BEAUTY CRUMMETTE, Miss GLORIA FRANCIS, Mrs. ELIZABETH MAUPIN, Miss ROMA LEE TAUNTON, and Miss SHIRLEY THOMPSON, assistant professors; Mrs. JOAN MANCINI, instructor; and Mrs. JUANITA SMITH, coordinator of the department, assistant professor.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

DR. WARREN E. WEAVER, dean, attended the Medicine-Pharmacy-Nursing Conference on Health Education held in Ann Arbor, Michigan, February 15-18.

On February 26 and 27, DR. JOHN ANDRAKO, assistant dean, represented the school of pharmacy at a meeting of the Regional Committee on Pharmaceutical Sciences, Southern Regional Education Board in Atlanta, Georgia.

DR. ALFRED N. MARTIN, professor of pharmacy, attended the Industrial Pharmacy Conference on Solubility and Ionic Equilibria, held at Arden House in Harriman, New York, February 12-17. This conference is sponsored annually by Columbia University and the Academy of Pharmaceutical Sciences for the purpose of refreshing industrial research scientists in newer advances in physical chemistry and biopharmaceutics. Doctor Martin and faculty members from other institutions across the country presented lectures during the five-day session.

DR. JAMES F. STUBBINS, assistant professor of pharmaceutical chemistry, attended pharmaceutical meetings on February 10 at the University of North Carolina.

Department of Development

RALPH M. WARE, JR., director of development, has been named to the board of directors of the Central Richmond Association. He replaces COLONEL JOHN H. HEIL, JR., assistant president, as MCV's representative in this association.

Dean of Students Office

Miss BETTY C. MORROW, assistant dean of students, participated in a panel discussion on the topic Avoidance of Reality at a meeting of Virginia deans and head residents at Averett College, Danville, on March 8.

Department of Biochemistry

Dr. Russell J. Bayly of the Radiochemical Centre, England, visited the department on February 20.

WILBUR CHAMBERS has an appointment as teaching fellow in microbiology at Virginia State College while he continues his studies at the Medical College of Virginia. Mr. Chambers has been working with Dr. EDWIN S. HIGGINS in the department of biochemistry.

Dr. KENNETH S. ROGERS, assistant professor, attended a symposium on Biomedical and Biological Applications of Electron Spin Resonance in Atlanta, Georgia, February 27.

Division of Academic Pathology

Our division was well represented at the American Association of Pathologists and Bacteriologists meeting in Washington, D. C., March 8. Dr. RICHARD C. HARD, JR., and Miss BIRGITTA KULLGREN, research associate, presented a paper titled A Fatal Lympho-Proliferative Disorder Occurring in the Mouse Chimeras Capable of Host Versus Graft Reactions. Dr. ABDUL R. GHANI and Dr.

WILLIAM J. S. STILL presented a paper on The Role of Blood Borne Cells in Organization of Mural Thrombi in Dacron Aortic Prosthesis in Canines. Dr. DONALD McNEILL and Dr. RICHARD C. HARD, JR., reported on Pathogenesis of Intestinal Crypt Lesions in Neonatally Thymectomized Hamsters. Miss JENNIFER CHAFFEE, MII, Dr. GEORGE W. GANDER and Dr. FAIRFIELD GOODALE presented a paper entitled Studies on The Antipyretic Action of Sodium Salicylate.

We welcome WILLIE L. BUTLER, JR., who is working in the animal rooms, and MILDRED TAYLOR, who has transferred from the business office.

We are pleased to have Mrs. GENEVIEVE HARRIS, secretary, recovering from a fall and out of the hospital.

Department of Otolaryngology

Dr. PETER N. PASTORE addressed the E. N. T. Society in Reading, Pennsylvania, on March 17. He attended the annual meeting of the Society of University Otolaryngologists, March 18-19.

Reporters' Rounds

Admitting and Information Department. We wish to welcome DONALD LONG, assistant director of admissions. We also welcome Mrs. ALICE W. BURGESS, who will work in the private admitting office, MCV West. She replaces Mrs. Frances Keim, who recently accepted another position.

Mrs. MILDRED MONTGOMERY reports a wonderful vacation spent in Florida. Mrs. KATE BALLINGER and Mrs. IRENE GRIGGS, MCV East, enjoyed their trip to Washington, D. C., aboard the Theatre Train. Mrs. DOROTHY WEST, emergency room-North, reports she enjoyed her vacation in Staunton visiting her sister.

We are glad to report that Mrs. RUBY SANDFORD, MCV West information, and Mrs. ISABEL SPICER, emergency room-South, are both improving after a long illness. We trust that they will be back with us before too long.

Mrs. MAVIS MAYES, private admitting, MCV West, had a very bad fall recently. She broke her foot, but is recuperating nicely at home. Mrs. GEORGIE MOODY, information, MCV West, is a patient in our hospital and we trust her stay will be of short duration.

CARL HAYNES, night superintendent, who is recuperating from a broken ankle, is able to be back at work. Miss ANN POLHILL, admitting, emergency room-South, is confined to the hospital with injured feet.

Mrs. NELLIE FARRAR, emergency room-North, reports her little granddaughter, Gwen Wilkinson, recently a patient in our hospital, is doing nicely at home.

Mrs. RUTH OLMSTEAD is proud of a new granddaughter, Dana Louise Olmstead. She is happy also that her daughter, Mrs. Vivian Shoaf, who was seriously ill, is now home from the hospital and recuperating nicely.

Division of Alcohol Studies and Rehabilitation. Mrs. CARTER B. OSSMAN, social worker, spoke to the ministerial students at Virginia Union University on February 16. Her talk was on alcoholism.

On January 31, Mrs. Ossman presented a paper to the general staff meeting on Dr. Robert Assagioli's book, Psychosynthesis.

We welcome Mrs. LOIS G. SCHERMERHORN to the DASR nursing staff. She will be working nights from 11 to 7.

Buildings and Grounds Department. We welcome the following new permanent employees: RICHARD E. BELLE, storekeeper assistant, HOWARD H. DAVIS, power plant shift supervisor, KENNETH M. McNEIL, institutional policeman, and HUGH W. TAYLOR, plumber-steamfitter. We extend also a warm welcome to the many new hourly employees who have joined our construction group.

PHILIP COLAVITA, JR., resident architect, whose hobby is music, has organized a brass quartet consisting of two cornets and two trumpets. Mr. Colavita plays one of the cornets and also directs.

We congratulate ROBERT E. O'CONNOR, JR., on the successful completion of the courses, Survey of Modern Architecture and Construction Estimation, at Richmond Professional Institute night school.

BERNARD ACKIEWICZ, institutional police chief, attended the National Association of College and University Traffic and Security Directors meeting at Richmond Professional Institute on March 11.

WILLARD B. KERSEY, electronics supervisor, and his wife had an enjoyable week end at the Chamberlin Hotel recently.

Our best wishes for speedy recoveries to Mrs. Harold M. Hagan, wife of our assistant director, who is a patient at MCV West Hospital, and to JOSEPH R. BROWN, air conditioning and refrigeration mechanic, who has been in the hospital for the past month. We are glad to learn that A. L. EATMON's wife, who was hospitalized at MCV, has returned home and that LIEUTENANT EMMET H. SMIS, institutional policeman, hopes to be recovered sufficiently from his broken leg to be able to return to work soon. WILBERT H. BARNES, trades helper, is back on the job following surgery and treatment for the loss of a finger.

We extend our best wishes to Barbara Davis, daughter of DORIS DAVIS, accountant, whose marriage to Jon H. Frost took place March 11.

Credit Department. HUGH B. MEHARG has been named collection manager to succeed the late ALFRED T. FERGUSON. MRS. DOROTHY C. STARGELL was promoted to the position of hospital accounts collector, succeeding Mr. Meharg. She is the first woman to occupy this position. MRS. GRACE B. FRIEDHOFF and MRS. KATHERINE P. SICKAL were promoted to analysts.

Congratulations to Mrs. Sical's twin sons, Tommy and Jimmy, who perform with a musical group called "The Fugitives." They won the title of Number One Band in the State of Virginia and a $500.00 prize at a Band Spectacular held at the Fair Grounds.

MRS. EDNA C. MESSER'S son, Dwight, has been stationed at Torrejon Air Force Base in Spain.

We welcome Miss LINDA PAIGE THAXTON, file clerk. Miss Thaxton is from Halifax.

Housekeeping Department. The housekeeping department welcomes another trainee, MRS. MARGARET BRYANT, who joined our staff on February 13.

One of our head janitors, JAMES E. BOOKER, and his wife, Ruth, were in an accident on February 21. James had just returned to work from an illness of pneumonia; he has several broken ribs now and is a patient in MCV North Hospital. We hope he and his wife will be well soon.

PECOLIA CHARLES, maid, has returned to work after suffering a broken arm.

Secretaries Workshop Will Be April 8

The Tenth Annual Workshop of the Old Dominion Chapter of the National Secretaries Association will be held April 8 at the Hotel John Marshall.

Dr. Dana B. Hamel, director of the Virginia Department of Community Colleges, will be the keynote speaker. The subject of his address will be "Chance Favors the Prepared Mind."

The workshop will include sessions on subjects of vital importance to office employees who want to do a good job and get ahead—"Communicating," "The Times Demand a Deeper Look," "The Economics and Market Outlook," "Good Grammar," "Office Procedures—Telephone Courtesy," and "Good Grooming."

Registration is limited to the first 500 applicants. The fee is $5.00 for NSA members and $7.50 for non-members. Mrs. Agnes Lipscomb, secretary to Miss Kathryn Heitsch, director of our dietetic internship program, is president of the Old Dominion Chapter, NSA. Call her on extension 321 for additional information.

Two British Doctors Receive A. D. Williams Awards

Dr. G. B. D. Scott, associate professor of morbid anatomy in the Royal Free Hospital school of medicine, University of London, has been awarded an A. D. Williams Distinguished Scholar Fellowship. Doctor Scott's tenure of service will be from July 1, 1967 until June 30, 1968.

Dr. T. K. Marshall, state pathologist for the Ministry of Home Affairs for Ireland at the Queen's University of Belfast, has received a one-month A. D. Williams Distinguished Scholarship. Doctor Marshall will be at MCV for the month of October.

We miss Mrs. THELMA LINDSEY and Mrs. ADDIE TILLMAN, who have been out sick.

We wish a speedy recovery for Mrs. DICKENS's husband who has been a patient in MCV West Hospital.

Nursing Department. The annual meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Blindness was held in Richmond on February 8. Miss ANN DAVISSON, clinical nurse specialist, and Miss BARBARA GENTRY, supervisor, attended.

The school of nursing at the University of North Carolina sponsored a course, Role of the Head Nurse in the Administration of Patient Care, February 20-24. One of our head nurses, Miss BONNIE FORD, was accepted for this course and was the recipient of a federal traineeship.

Two of our nurses, Mrs. ELOISE W. BROOKS and Miss ALICE JEANETTE MINTZ, attended a recent cancer nursing workshop sponsored by the division of nurse education of New York University in cooperation with the Memorial Hospital for Cancer and Allied Diseases.

It is good to have those attending courses, workshops, and meetings return with enthusiasm and information to share with other members of the department at special meetings.

Social Work Department. Mrs. LINDA LOWE, Mrs. JUDY FRIEDMAN, and Miss GERALDENE MOORE recently attended a conference of the American Group Psychotherapy Association in New York. They attended meetings on family marital counselling.

Treasurer's Office. We welcome Mrs. BARBARA N. ALLEN to the College business office and Mrs. MYRTLE S. HAIRFIELD to the payroll department.

We are very glad to have Mrs. BILLY J. LILLY and Mrs. SYBIL R. POWELL back with us after undergoing operations.

We wish to extend sincere sympathy to the family of Mrs. Carmela T. Bates.
