Dear Henry,

Lilly gave me your message. You are mistaken, my friend. I could not have come last night. You have never been a composer nor have you been 75 years old. But most of all, you have never been a composer at 75. So you don't know. This is a predicament and it means a chase — being chased to finish what is yours to do. I hate big words but I wish you could realize it and would not confuse it with lack of interest in what you are doing.

Most cordially,

Ernst

I was shocked to hear about Enny's accident. Still as it went, Glück im Unglück!
