Dear Mr. Temianka:

I received your charming letter and the clipping on my return from summer vacation. I am leaving tomorrow on another trip which will keep me absnet till October. "Music as a way of life" is exactly what I am up to these days. You too, I gather; and I am sure you have been enjoying it to the full. That Europe is enjoying the Paganini Quartet at the same time I have not the slightest doubt. As you can see from this letter, I am feeling cheerful these days about music.

Most sincerely yours,

Vigil Thomas
