MEDIA INFORMATION

OVERVIEW

The Sports Information Department provides a variety of services to the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the news media. Sports information duties include keeping accurate statistical data of each athletic event and providing publications for each team such as media guides, game programs, schedule posters, schedule cards and press releases. The department has won numerous awards for its media guides in recent years.

In addition, the Sports Information Department organizes game-day operations and provides information to the local and national news media and to the student-athletes' hometowns. A member of the NSU sports information staff will be present at home games and will travel with NSU teams for road contests.

ATHLETICS WEB SITE

The Sports Information Department maintains, creates and manages all editorial, statistical and biographical content for the official NSU Athletics Web site. The NSU Athletics Web site can be accessed on the Internet at <http://nsuathletics.nova.edu>. The NSU Athletics Web site also provides cutting-edge multimedia features such as live audio broadcasts of select NSU athletic events and functions as well as live statistical information during select home games. A complete audio broadcast schedule, as well as archived broadcasts of past events, can be viewed on the NSU Athletics Web site through the following link: <http://nsuathletics.nova.edu/statistics/liveaudio.cfm>.

SHARK ALERT

The Sports Information Department also publishes SHARK ALERT, a free, weekly NSU Department of Athletics email newsletter that can be subscribed to on the official NSU Athletics Web site. SHARK ALERT provides NSU fans with interesting, informative and timely weekly headlines; player/coach features; game recaps; game previews; information on upcoming special events and promotions; and many other newsworthy items. SHARK ALERT also selects a "Player of the Week" to honor student-athletes whose performances have been pivotal to the success of their respective teams.

ESCORES

Fans also can receive up-to-date scores and information directly to their cell phones via text message, by email or both by signing up for eScores. eScores is a free one-of-a-kind fan messaging service, and fans can sign up by clicking the eScores link on the NSU Athletics Web site.

CREDENTIALS

Members of the working press, electronic media and other news agencies can request credentials to cover NSU athletic events by calling the NSU Sports Information Department at least 24 hours prior to game time. Accredited photographers and Electronic News Gathering (ENG) crews may shoot from designated areas at all events.

STATISTICS/MEDIA SERVICES

Media guides, programs, fact sheets and cumulative statistics will be furnished to the working media prior to game time. Complete statistical information will be available to the media at the conclusion of all NSU home athletic events. Telephones and a fax machine are available for use in the athletics offices. Please contact a member of the sports information staff to request use of this service.

INTERVIEWS

All one-on-one interviews with Nova Southeastern University players and coaches should be scheduled through the NSU Sports Information Department. Please provide at least 24 hours advance notice to allow interview arrangements to be made. Interviews at the conclusion of all home games will be held after a brief cooling-off period. Any requests for visiting team interviews should be made through the visiting team's sports information representative. If one is not present, the NSU sports information staff will assist with visiting team interview needs.

COACHING STAFF

Marilyn RULE HEAD COACH • NINTH SEASON

The first-ever women's basketball coach at Nova Southeastern University, Marilyn Rule returns for her ninth season as head coach of the NSU women's basketball team for the 2006-07 season, after coming off one of the best seasons in the program's history.

In 2006-07, the Sharks looked to improve upon the success they enjoyed the previous season but injuries hampered NSU's efforts.

Still, the Sharks finished a very respectable fourth in the Sunshine State Conference and got great individual performances, such as the record-setting free throw clinic put on by senior guard Missy Guadagnino who sank 22 consecutive free throws in one game.

Named the 2004-05 Sunshine State Conference Coach of the Year, Rule turned a pre-season rank of 8th in the conference to a 2nd-place tie at the conclusion of the season. In its first year as full members of the SSC, the Sharks set out to establish its program among the top teams in the conference.

Under Rule's direction, the Sharks set a new program record with 17 wins on the season and received its first regional ranking. With 10 new players from eight different states and two countries, a difficult schedule, and several injuries, the team struggled out of the gate.

The Sharks' mid-season turnaround included a program-record eight-game winning streak, which began with an 84-77 victory of Central Arkansas, the then No. 1 team in the South Region.

Rule's squad also set a new single-game scoring record for most points scored with a 99-89 victory over Saint Leo University. The Sharks also captured its first-ever win in Winter Park over No. 17 Rollins College. Coaching the Sharks since 1998, Rule has transitioned the program into the NCAA after four highly successful seasons as part of the NAIA, which included three regular season Florida Sun Conference Championships to go along with an NAIA National Championship appearance in 2001-02. Adding to her accolades are three Florida Sun Conference Coach of the Year awards for the inaugural season (1998-99), and the 2000-01 and 2001-02 seasons.

Prior to coming to Nova Southeastern University, Rule spent six years coaching at the high school level. In her first year coaching, she was an assistant varsity and JV coach at Douglas High School. She then took over the JV program for one year at Coral Springs High School after accepting a teaching position there. She then spent the next four years as Head Varsity Girls Basketball Coach and turned the Coral Springs Lady Colts into one of the top teams in Broward County.

Rule received Coach-of-the-Year honors twice for Coral Springs High School for her efforts. In addition to coaching the girl's basketball program, she also served as an assistant trainer, and coached the Boys Volleyball team and Boys Golf team which won the 1995 State Championship.

While coaching at the high school level, she spent the off-seasons coaching several AAU teams. Along with her husband Jeff, Rule took two teams to AAU National Tournaments and one to the YBAO Nationals. She also enjoyed running and working numerous basketball camps throughout the nation including two summers working the prestigious WBCA invitational summer camps.

Rule enjoyed a successful collegiate playing career, first at Florida Southern College and then at Florida Atlantic University.

A native of Detroit, Mich., she has been a resident of Coral Springs. She played for J.P. Taravella High School where she was a four-time All-Broward County player and two-time All-State selection. She helped to lead the Trojans to the school's first ever appearance in the State Tournament where the team finished 27-1 during her senior year.

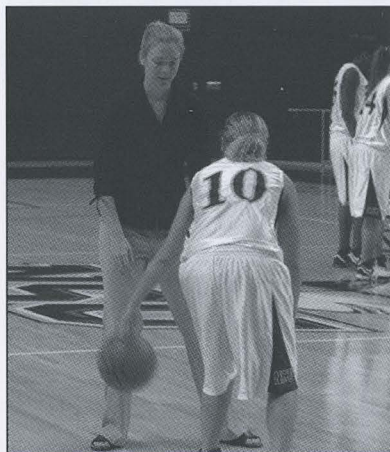

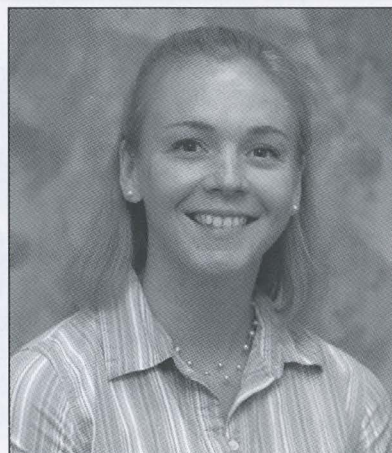

A 1993 graduate of Florida Atlantic University, Rule received her bachelor's degree in social science with a minor in secondary education and has received her master's degree in education with a specialization in sports management from NSU in 2004.

She and husband Jeff reside in Coral Springs with their six-year-old son Kevin and one-year-old son Colton.

NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

2006-07 SEASON OUTLOOK

This season brings about a new era in NSU Athletics. Nova Southeastern University's brand-new 87 million dollar gem, the University Center is the new home for ninth-year head women's basketball coach Marilyn Rule and her Sharks.

"Playing in a new arena will pump up our kids and hopefully draw a bigger crowd which should make a big difference for us. We have 16 home games and we're looking forward to having big crowds at each of them," says Coach Rule.

NSU will bring back a lot of the same players (seven letterwinners in total) that helped the Sharks reach the Sunshine State Conference tournament semifinals last season.

"We're bringing back a solid core from last year, which is very exciting" Rule beams. "Along with the new kids, we're expecting to have a good year this season and have a legitimate chance at winning the conference."

BACKCOURT

One of the key returnees for NSU will be senior Mechelle Jones (Rockledge, Fla.), who returns to the floor after suffering an injury last season.

"Mechelle brings a wealth of experience. She is a solid defender and we're counting on her leadership and maturity," Rule says. "She is determined to come back and have a great senior year."

One of the Sharks' exciting newcomers is point guard Tia Evenson (Jr., Neodesha, Kan.), who comes to NSU from Fort Hays State University. In her second and final season with the Lady Tigers, Evenson led her team in three-point shooting (.333), free throw percentage (.795) and assists per game (2.9). She helped lead the Lady Tigers to a 21-7 overall record to go along with a 15-4 record in conference play.

"Tia will run the point for us. She's a smart player, takes great care of the ball and makes good decisions," Rule states. "She can create for her teammates and for herself. She is what you would want from a point guard."

Junior Ashley Wilson (Coral Springs, Fla.) returns after earning NSU women's basketball Most Improved Player honors last year. Wilson appeared in 25 games for the Sharks in 05-06, highlighted by a 12-point performance against Florida Southern.

"Ashley continues to be one of our hardest workers and best defenders," Rule says. "She will be counted on to provide solid play on both ends of the court."

Eliza Allen (So., Hegenheim, France) comes off a freshman year in which she started the final eight games of the season, including a double-double effort against Florida Southern and a 16-point performance against Saint Leo, which earned her SSC Player of the Week honors.

"Eliza is a versatile player capable of big numbers. She creates matchup problems because of her height. She's a solid kid on either side, loves to rebound and play defense," Rule proclaims.

The Sharks' backcourt will also include three other newcomers, junior college transfer Brittany Green (Fort Lauderdale, Fla.), true freshmen LaShawna Edwards (Miami, Fla.) and Tara Haddock (Citrus Springs, Fla.), who is also a member of NSU's women's cross country team.

"Brittany is a very athletic guard. She will help defensively and offensively and is a good slasher," Rule says. "The sky's the limit for LaShawna. She has so much potential and is one of the most athletic players we've ever had in the program. She is going to be an exciting player to watch and should make an immediate impact for us. Tara is already one our hardest workers. She's a tall guard that can shoot. She's got a great work ethic and great attitude."

FRONTCOURT

The Sharks look for forward Jennifer Havens (Sr., Ontario, Ore.) to pick up where she left off in the SSC tournament, earning SSC All-Tournament honors while averaging 21 points and seven rebounds in the Sharks' two games.

"Jen is one of our strongest players. She uses her body really well and can hit from outside or with her back to the basket. She just really plays hard and is deadly from the free throw line; she's money." Havens' .824 free throw percentage led the conference.

Center Fabienne Bain (Jr., Longueuil, Quebec, Canada) looks to build on her serviceable sophomore season.

"She really committed herself over the summer to gain physical strength. We're pleased with what we've seen in preseason," Rule declares. "Look for Fabienne to be a strong presence inside."

Forward Amber Bishko (Jr., Orlando, Fla.), Rule believes, is capable of putting up big numbers as evidenced by her 24-point performance against Kentucky Wesleyan in her first season at NSU after transferring from Florida Gulf Coast.

"Like Jen, she's a tough, solid 3/4 player. She, too, can shoot from outside or with her back to the basket."

Center Christine Haber (Jr., Libertyville, Ill.) looks to regain the form that saw her named to the SSC All-Freshman team in 2004-2005.

"Christine has been extremely impressive in preseason. Like Fabienne, we're counting on her rebounding and inside presence. If she can stay healthy, she's capable of being one of the top posts or centers in the conference."

SCHEDULE

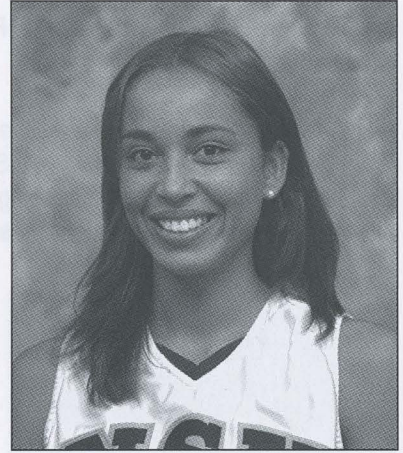

The Sharks will tip-off the season with two scrimmages in the University Center Arena against Division I opponents Miami (FL) and Florida International. The regular season schedule begins on November 17 as NSU will host regional foes Valdosta State and Florida Tech in the NSU/Marriot Tip-Off Classic.

The pre-conference schedule also features the aforementioned Valdosta State Blazers on the road, home games against St. Augustine, West Florida, the Cruizin' Classic, which also hosted by NSU, Shaw University and the Barry University Holiday Classic.

"We always like to challenge ourselves in the pre-conference schedule. We play Valdosta twice out of the gate. West Florida is another strong regional opponent who made the NCAA tournament last year. Shaw was an Elite Eight team two years ago. By the time we get to the conference schedule, we'll be well tested," says Rule.

The conference schedule begins December 10 when the team will get its feet wet against the Saint Leo Lions on the road. The regular season will conclude on February 24 at the University of Tampa. This season, the SSC Tournament will be hosted by Lynn University in Boca Raton, Fla.

NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

2005-06 SEASON REVIEW

2005-2006 Women's Basketball Season Recap

In 2005-2006, Marilyn Rule's Nova Southeastern Sharks went 16-13 overall and 8-8 in the Sunshine State Conference.

The Sharks, coming off a breakout season in which they finished third in the conference, began the season with a 57-42 defeat at Valdosta State. The team went on to win its next three games heading into the Holiday Isle Classic held in the Florida Keys. The squad came out of that tournament 1-2 but felt ready for their conference schedule.

The Sharks opened the SSC schedule on January 4th with a tilt at Lynn University, which they won at the deHornle Center, 83-68.

On January 25th at Florida Southern, senior point guard Missy Guadagnino set NCAA Division II records for most free throws and most consecutive free throws made in a game when she went 22 for 22 from the charity stripe in the 66-58 victory.

NSU would go on to finish a respectable fourth in the conference and drew the fifth-seeded Saint Leo Lions in the SSC tournament. In the 74-68 win, junior forward Jennifer Havens exploded for 22 points and five rebounds.

The Sharks would come up short in the semifinal round, however, as they were sent away by NCAA participant Rollins College by a 62-47 score.

For her efforts, Havens was honored with a spot on the all-tournament team and Guadagnino was named First Team All-SSC.

SUNSHINE STATE CONFERENCE “CONFERENCE OF NATIONAL CHAMPIONS”

Mike Marcil
Commissioner
Sunshine State Conference

Currently one of the most competitive and respected conferences in NCAA Division II, the Sunshine State Conference (SSC) was founded in 1975. SSC schools captured two national championships in 2005–06 and have earned a total of 63 national championships overall.

The Sunshine State Conference has developed from a basketball organization into the NCAA Division II “Conference of National Champions.” Since its inception, the conference has grown steadily in sports played, membership and national prominence.

Sunshine State Conference teams have won NCAA Division II national championships in baseball, men’s basketball, men’s and women’s golf, men’s and women’s soccer, softball, men’s and women’s tennis and volleyball and receive national recognition in women’s basketball, women’s rowing and men’s and women’s cross country.

The SSC sponsors championships in 14 sports for men and women: baseball, men’s and women’s basketball, men’s and women’s cross country, men’s and women’s golf, men’s and women’s soccer, softball, men’s and women’s tennis, women’s rowing and volleyball.

SSC Commissioner Mike Marcil (L) with NSU Director of Athletics Michael Mominey (R).

Nova Southeastern University was officially granted membership status in the Sunshine State Conference in August 2002. Other SSC members—all in Florida—are Barry University (Miami Shores), Eckerd College (St. Petersburg), Florida Tech (Melbourne), Florida Southern College (Lakeland), Lynn University (Boca Raton), Rollins College (Winter Park), Saint Leo University (Saint Leo) and the University of Tampa (Tampa).

Numerous All-Americans, Academic All-Americans and future professional athletes have attended conference institutions. The SSC is respected for its academic foresight, setting standards that were later adopted by the NCAA.

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) is the organization through which the nation's colleges and universities speak and act on athletic matters at the national level. It is a voluntary association of approximately 1,200 institutions, conferences, organizations and individuals devoted to the sound administration of intercollegiate athletics.

Through the NCAA, member colleges consider any athletics problem that crosses regional or conference lines and has become national in character. The association strives to maintain intercollegiate athletics as an integral part of the educational program and the athlete as an integral part of the student body. The NCAA also stands for good conduct in intercollegiate athletics and serves as the colleges' national athletics accrediting agency.

The NCAA has grown dramatically in the past 50 years, with more than 600 new members since 1950.

NCAA DIVISION II

Division II institutions have to sponsor at least four sports for men and four for women, with two team sports for each gender and each playing season represented by each gender. There are contest and participant minimums for each sport, as well as scheduling criteria—football and men's and women's basketball teams must play at least 50 percent of their games against Division II or I-A or I-AA opponents.

For sports other than football and basketball, there are no scheduling requirements. There are no attendance requirements or arena game requirements for basketball. There are maximum financial aid awards for each sport that a Division II school must not exceed. Division II teams usually feature a number of local or in-state student-athletes. Many Division II student-athletes pay for school through a combination of scholarship money, grants, student loans and employment earnings. Division II athletics programs are financed in the institution's budget like academic departments on campus. Traditional rivalries with regional institutions dominate schedules of many Division II athletics programs.

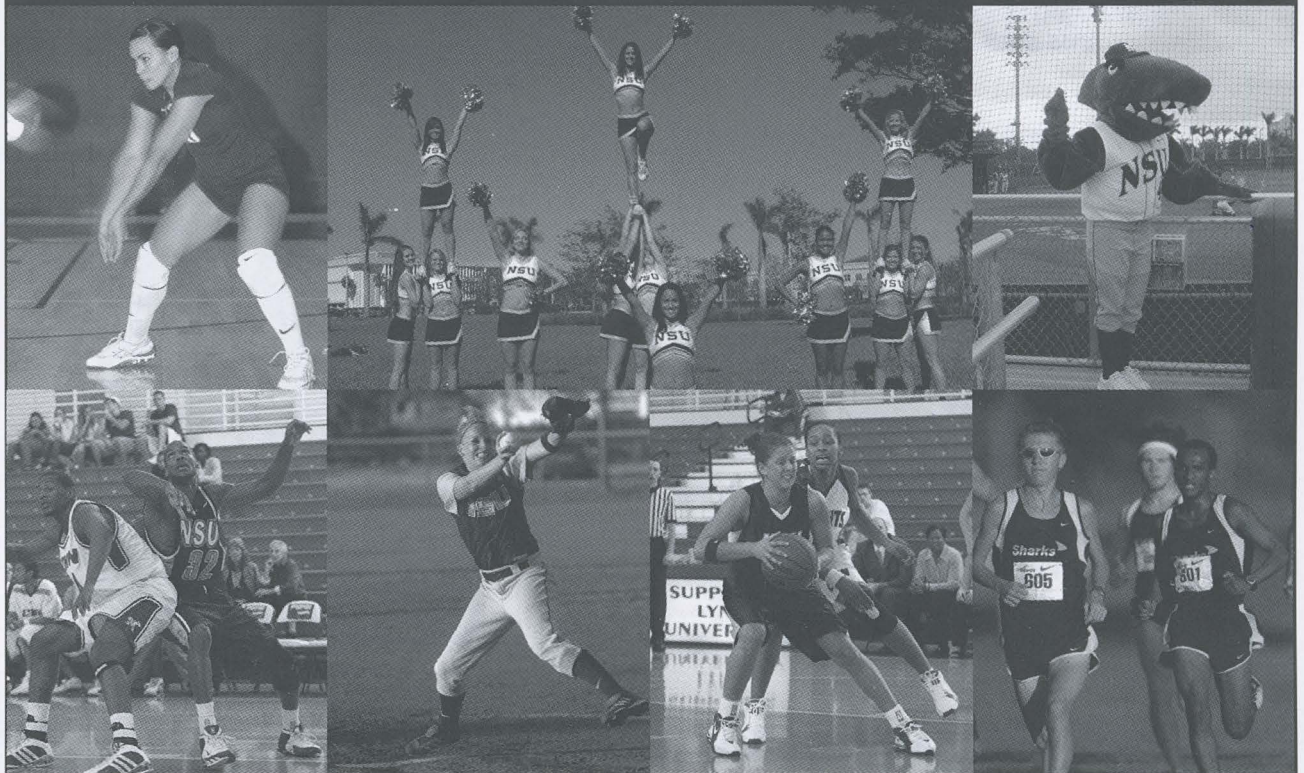

NCAA COMPLIANCE TIP

Did you know?

A student-athlete shall not receive any extra benefit? This refers to any special arrangement by an institutional employee or representative of the institution's athletics interests to provide the student-athlete or his or her relative or friends with a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA legislation.

NSU DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS

NSU DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

Nova Southeastern University recognizes, values and supports intercollegiate athletics as an integral part of the educational mission of the university. Central to the program's mandate and in accord with the stated goals of the university, the NSU Department of Athletics commits itself to fostering leadership, lifelong learning and service to the community among its student-athletes.

The department is dedicated to sponsoring a competitive program of intercollegiate athletics for men and women. Valuing deeply the physical, social and emotional welfare of those who participate, the department and the university express this commitment through membership in the NCAA and the Sunshine State Conference, both of which exemplify the principles of amateur athletics. These include diversity, sportsmanship, fair play and equitable opportunity for all. Athletic department staff members will manifest these values in clearly discernible conduct.

The intercollegiate athletics program at Nova Southeastern University is committed to the recruitment, preparation and welfare of highly qualified and gifted men and women.

NSU DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

MICHAEL MOMINEY

Michael Mominey was promoted to Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at Nova Southeastern University on July 1, 2003, after serving in the capacity of interim director since January 2, 2002. He has led the NSU Department of Athletics into a historic and defining era, as NSU began their first year of competition in NCAA Division II in 2002 and in the Sunshine State Conference in 2004. In addition to leading the athletic program in their transition into the NCAA, Mominey has added five intercollegiate programs during his tenure (women's rowing, women's tennis, men's cross country and men's and women's outdoor track) as the student-athlete population has increased from 160 in 2002 to over 240 projected this academic year. The departmental grade point average for all student-athletes since January of 2002 has consistently been above 3.00 for eight consecutive semesters, with the 2006 winter semester GPA reaching an all-time high of 3.20.

Mominey has been instrumental in the design, development, planning and programming phases for the University Center, which opened its doors in August 2006. The over 300,000 square-foot facility serves as a home for the intercollegiate athletic program, student recreation and wellness programs and performing arts program. The venue serves as the home to the men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball programs. Also included in the building are a sports medicine and rehab center, a weight room/fitness room, team specific locker rooms, a student-athlete lounge, student union, cafeteria and a performing arts theater with rehearsal rooms.

"We have been very fortunate to have had the success with our program at such early stages of our membership in the NCAA and the Sunshine State Conference. We have great support from our administration, which has allowed us to progress so quickly, always maintaining the ideals of developing the student-athlete" said Mominey. "I look forward to continuing to challenge our student-athletes, coaches and staff to be the best they can be, in hopes of building the traditions that serve as the foundation of a well respected and nationally recognized athletic program. This year will continue to be an exciting and history-making era for NSU and our athletic program."

NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

ATHLETICS HISTORY

- 1980 To boost the limited undergraduate enrollment at its Davie Campus, the NSU president, Abe Fischler, and the Board of Trustees looked to try something new: build a sports program. Nova University had a graduate school enrollment of about 7,000 students, with nontraditional, field-based programs scattered in 22 states, offering limited graduate and undergraduate degree programs on campus.
- 1981 Charles "Sonny" Hansley is named director of athletics of the first-ever athletic department at Nova University.
- Fall 1982 Nova University finds a nickname. Mike Turpek, formerly the director of athletics at the University School, comes up with "Knights" and wins an ocean cruise. The contest to come up with the school's nickname was open to the general public. Eight people in the area submitted the name "Knights," but Turpek was chosen the winner after his name was pulled out of a hat.
- 1982-83 The first year of competition in the athletic department begins with men's basketball. Under head coach Sonny Hansley, basketball begins as an independent program, not affiliated with any conference.
- Fall 1984 Nova University becomes a member of the National Little College Athletic Association (NLCAA).
- 1984-85 Nova University adds men's soccer, women's volleyball and men's and women's cross country.
- Fall 1985 Nova University joins the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). Undergraduate enrollment at this time is 222.
- Nov. 6, 1986 Nova University's men's soccer team beats Berry (Georgia) 1-0, capturing the 1986 District 25 Championship.
- Fall 1986 Dag Cohen (Fr., Borgholm, Sweden), a midfielder for Nova University's men's soccer team, is named an All-American by the National Soccer Coaches Association. Cohen is the first Nova athlete, in any sport, to be so honored.
- Fall 1987 Nova University adds baseball, women's tennis and men's golf as the undergraduate population increases to 1,000 students.
- May 7, 1988 Nova University's baseball team advances to the championship of the NAIA District 25 State Tournament, after defeating Flagler College 17-15 in the semifinals.
- Fall 1988 Nova University's volleyball team captures its third consecutive District 25 Volleyball Championship and finishes the year with an 18-6 record. Senior Margie Avila was named District 25 MVP. Also, Nova University hosts the NAIA 30th Annual National Soccer Championships. Men's soccer head coach Hal Henderson is inducted into the NAIA Hall of Fame for his meritorious service to the association.
- 1989 Mark Cavanaugh, Ph.D., is appointed as the faculty athletic representative for Nova Athletics.
- 1990-91 Nova University joins with seven other NAIA schools (Flagler College, Webber College, St. Thomas University, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, Palm Beach Atlantic College, Warner Southern College and Florida Memorial College) to form the FIAC (Florida Intercollegiate Athletic Conference). Nova has an undergraduate population of more than 3,200 students. Men's soccer wins its first-ever FIAC championship, earning a berth in the District 25 Tournament for the sixth straight year.
- 1992 FIAC is changed to the Florida Sun Conference (FSC). Nova University is now a member of District 7 and has a new president, Stephen Feldman, Ph.D.
- 1993 Nova adds softball as its fourth intercollegiate women's sport.
- 1994 Nova University and Southeastern University of the Health Sciences merge to form Nova Southeastern University. NSU has a new president, Ovid Lewis, Ph.D.
- 1995 The NSU Athletic Department begins exploring possible NCAA membership, behind newly-appointed director of athletics, Corey Johnson.
- 1998 Ray Ferrero, Jr., is named president of Nova Southeastern University.
- Jan. 2002 Michael Mominey is named interim director of athletics for NSU.

- May 2003 NSU baseball pitcher Kyle Ruwe becomes the athletic program's first NCAA All-American, as he is named to the ABCA/Rawlings All-American Second Team.
- July 2003 Michael Mominey is promoted to director of athletics at NSU and adds women's rowing, while reinstating men's cross country and women's tennis.

- NSU men's golfer Martin Styf is named SSC Freshman of the Year.
- June 2005 Pitcher Derek Antelo became the first NSU baseball player to be selected in the top-10 rounds of the Major League Baseball Draft. Antelo is chosen by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 10th round of the June 2005 MLB Draft. The perfect 22-for-22 feat established the best free-throw percentage per attempts in a single game. The previous single-game free throw percentage mark was set by Karen Arnold of Millersville University, who was 19-for-19 on December 11, 1988.

NSU DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS UNIVERSITY CENTER ARENA "THE SHARK TANK"

Nova Southeastern's newest construction project, the University Center, was completed in July of 2006. The revolutionary 300,000 square-foot, multi-use facility serves as a central hub for the NSU student community. The main arena, which seats 5,500, is the home for NSU's intercollegiate athletic program, and will host all of NSU's volleyball and men's and women's basketball home games. With one main game court, the arena also has two practice/game-ready courts on the upper level. The arena also has the state-of-the-art capabilities to host concerts, lectures, special events and more for NSU and the surrounding community.

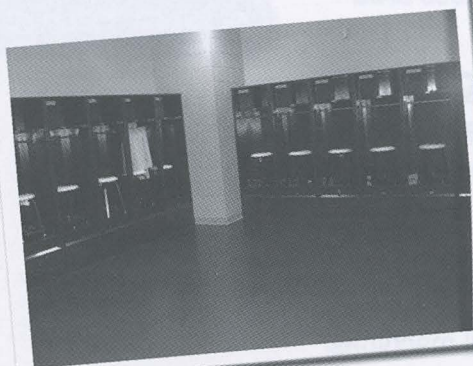

The main arena features 5,500 seats, each with a seat back. The main court provides for over 1,200 permanent chair-back seats, while the upper level has over 4,000 seats. The upper level houses the world's largest automated telescopic seating system, which adds over 2,000 chair-back seats on either side when extended.

The main arena also features 66 cushioned club seats overlooking the court, just outside of the donor/booster room. Shark Club members and guest enjoy the comforts of a catered suite and a unique baseline view of the court.

NSU DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS ATHLETIC TRAINING

FARQUHAR COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES DIVISION OF MATH, SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

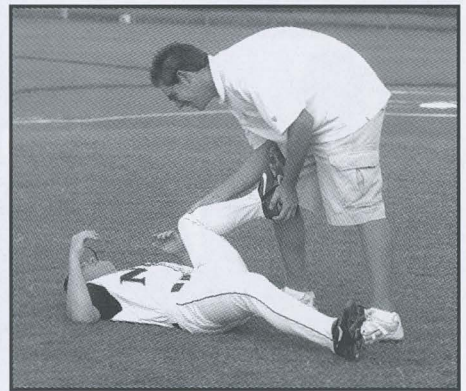

What is an ATC?

The Certified Athletic Trainer (ATC) is a highly educated and skilled professional who specializes in health care for those engaged in physical activity. Athletic trainers are vital to the prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries. The athletic trainer works closely with physicians, coaches and other medical and allied health personnel to help provide the highest quality of health care to athletes in clinics, high schools, colleges, universities and professional sports teams.

The Academic Program

Nova Southeastern University's Farquhar College of Arts and Sciences offers a compelling undergraduate curriculum in athletic training. The dedicated faculty and staff members become excellent role models for athletic training students, while providing athletic training service to an NCAA Division II athletics program. The athletic training curriculum balances class instruction and clinical experience, preparing students to meet all requirements for the Board of Certification examination, contingent on program accreditation. NSU incorporates the intimacy of a small college education with the resources of the largest private university in the Southeast. In this dynamic, state-of-the-art program, qualified students earning a bachelor of science degree in athletic training may continue into a professional degree program for physician assistants, occupational therapy or physical therapy.

Clinical Experience

Athletic training students will work closely with certified athletic trainers to gain clinical experience with Nova Southeastern University athletics, sports clinics, high schools and professional sports venues in South Florida. These hands-on clinical opportunities apply and refine skills learned in the classroom. Other medical professionals, such as physicians, physician assistants and physical therapists from Nova Southeastern University's Health Professions Division are also involved in this academic clinical experience.

Admission

To enter the athletic training program, you must first be admitted to Nova Southeastern University in good standing and register for Introduction to Athletic Training (ATTR 1100) during the fall semester. This course will guide you through the application process and appropriate deadlines.

NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

RAY FERRERO, JR., J.D.
PRESIDENT, NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

The 2005–06 school year marked several milestones for Nova Southeastern University. The Department of Athletics had another extremely successful year on the fields, courts and water, while competing in its fourth year as a member of the NCAA. The NSU women's rowing team took part in the NCAA Division II Rowing Championships for the third time in program history, finishing third in the nation overall.

In fall 2006, the new 366,000-square-foot University Center opened its doors. This multiuse facility is at the center of NSU's 300-acre main campus and will serve as the home to our sports teams. The 5,500-seat convocation center/sports arena at the University Center is the second largest of its kind in Broward County and will allow us to host special events, concerts and lectures, as well as local, national and international conferences. It will redefine the university's relationship with its students, administration, faculty and staff members and the entire surrounding community.

The facility also serves as the new home to the university's student development and activities offices, career services, the student information center, card office, The Flight Deck Lounge, radio station and volunteer center. Its design incorporates a state-of-the-art health and fitness club, racquetball and squash courts, a gymnasium and a rock-climbing wall.

Our talented student-athletes balance NSU's rigorous academic demands with the vigorous environment of athletic training and competition. They embody the values of leadership, lifelong learning and service to the community. The University Center will provide the student-athletes with the training facilities and space to continue to enhance these values.

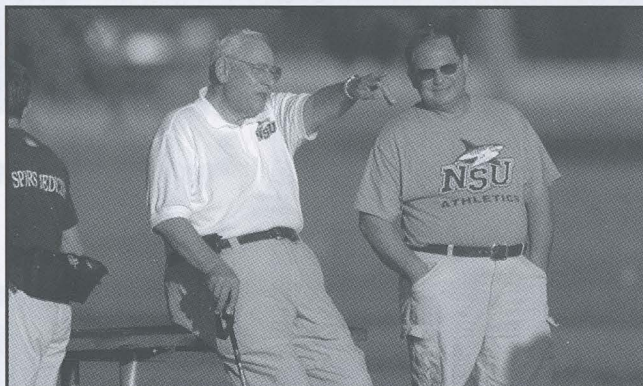

Since I began my tenure as president of Nova Southeastern University nine years ago, I have remained steadfast in my goal to continue to develop and refine quality education programs and prepare students for leadership positions and emerging challenges in the 21st century. Today, as the seventh largest independent, not-for-profit university in the United States, we are fulfilling that mission.

The student-athletes of Nova Southeastern University have shown great success in the classroom, as well. The women's golf team posted the highest GPA of all NSU teams for the 2005–06 school year with a 3.6, while women's cross country, women's basketball and men's golf finished with a combined 3.3 for the year. More than 80 student-athletes were named to the honor court, while 12 student-athletes were nominated for Academic All-American consideration. In addition, the overall grade point average for NSU student-athletes has been 3.0 or higher for the past six years.

Everyone associated with this university can take pride in the excellence we have achieved thus far, and look forward to an exciting future full of milestones. We will continue to seek and implement ways to better ourselves every day. And we will aim to surpass even our own high standards of excellence in academics, research, technology, athletics and community service.

Thank you for your ongoing support of Nova Southeastern University.

Sincerely,
Ray Ferrero, Jr.

NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

OVERVIEW

When the first class of 17 graduate students enrolled in Nova University of Advanced Technology on Monday, September 25, 1967, the campus in Davie, Florida, still looked more like the abandoned naval airfield it had once been than like the campus of what aspired to be “the MIT of the South.” Only the Rosenthal Building had been completed. The shell of the Parker Building was under construction. The rest of the campus was barren, acre after acre of weeds and sand relieved here and there by some of the original tarmac.

With only one permanent building ready for occupancy on the 300-acre campus, after the formalities of registration and orientation, faculty members and students went to Rolling Hills Country Club for lunch. They then met in groups, based upon their areas of specialization. Science education students went back to Rosenthal; physics and chemistry students went to the university’s temporary laboratories in the 400 block of East Las Olas Boulevard; and oceanography students went to the houseboat laboratories at Southeast 15th Street.

In 1969, Nova University’s 300-acre campus in Davie, Florida, looked more like the abandoned naval airfield it had once been.

Chartered by the state of Florida on December 4, 1964, Nova University boasted assets, contributions, and pledges of $10 million by opening day in 1967. A total of $125,000 had been raised and paid to the federal government as an installment on what became the university’s 300-acre campus. James Farquhar, the university’s first chairman of the board, donated 100 acres adjacent to the campus—a gift valued in excess of $500,000. Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Mather and the Bailey Foundation donated a 100-acre parcel of land in Hollywood valued at $400,000. Ten acres at Port Everglades for the oceanographic laboratory were deeded to the university by the Broward County Commission.

The university represented a great hope for higher education in South Florida: an institution that would keep the best and the brightest at home and attract the most promising faculty members and students from around the country to a great seat of learning in a rapidly developing region of the United States. By stressing the importance of science and technology, it would provide the kind of leadership that was needed to help bring the United States into a competitive position in the conquest of space, the new frontier of the 1960s. Nova University would be in a position to provide fresh approaches to the process of teaching, learning and doing research. Nova could also serve as a catalyst in developing and implementing educational models that could be applied first to its neighboring schools, then nationwide.

University officials knew that from the opening day, all eyes would be focused on the faculty, the students and the campus. More time, energy and money had probably been invested in the first 17 students than had been spent on any other students in the United States. They had been selected from 250 applicants from all over the country. They were all doctoral students and had been given free tuition, as well as stipends of up to $5,000 for living expenses. On top of that, it took 68 staff members, 17 faculty members and an annual budget of $1.7 million to run the university that year.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL MEDIA GUIDE

In 1970, Nova University was given candidate status and was later accredited (1971) by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS). Students continued to enroll and faculty members taught and engaged in research.

The economic model upon which the university was established committed it to an ongoing need for outside funding, research grants and private donations. On June 23, 1970, the board of trustees voted to enter into a federation with the New York Institute of Technology. Alexander Schure, president of NYIT, became chancellor of Nova University. Abraham S. Fischler became president. The university charter was amended and “of Advanced Technology” was dropped from its corporate name.

During the 15 years of the federation, the whole concept of Nova’s student body, programs and campus changed. In addition to the students on the Davie campus, the university found student markets where it could, looking for ways to bring the campus to the student.

The university developed new programs and expanded beyond the limits of its campus and South Florida. Across the country, hundreds of adult, working professionals in school systems, government agencies and businesses were now able to earn advanced degrees without quitting their jobs and becoming full-time students. Few colleges and universities offered evening and weekend programs that fit their schedules. Nova had clearly found a market niche.

On campus, undergraduate evening programs began for adults, while the law school was opened in 1974. A host of master’s degree programs in business, psychology and education continued to be developed.

In 1976, the university received a $16 million gift from the estate of Leo Goodwin Sr., and began extensive campus and program expansion. Shortly after this, NSU dissolved its relationship with NYIT and began to create a board of trustees filled by South Florida community leaders, putting the stewardship of Nova back in the hands of its own local board.

1985 to Present

The Nova University that emerged in 1985 was committed to incorporating new educational technologies, made possible by computers and telecommunications, into the teaching and learning process and into its delivery of education. A network of students online at their computers redefined what a classroom is. Communicating across time zones, linked to a professor who can be on campus or anywhere, students across the United States and even at international locations turn one-dimensional computer screens into fields for academic discussion.

In 1989, celebrating its 25th year, Nova University was enrolling more than 8,000 students and had nearly 25,000 graduates, with revenues of nearly $70 million. Over the next five years, three new buildings were constructed and a campus-wide beautification campaign added landscaping that greatly changed the look of the campus.

In 1994, Nova University merged with Southeastern University of the Health Sciences to form Nova Southeastern University (NSU), adding the Colleges of Osteopathic Medicine, Pharmacy, Optometry and Allied Health to the university. The university continued its expansion of building projects and added new academic, clinical and community service programs.

By 1999, at the 35th anniversary, the university was enjoying an era of sustained growth, facilitated by a healthy infusion of endowment funds and a nearly 1,000-student increase in enrollment between fall 1998 and fall 1999. NSU's enrollment had increased approximately 42 percent; full-time members of the faculty, staff and administration expanded to almost 2,600; and minority representation among faculty and staff members and students continued to expand.

Since 2000, NSU has undergone dramatic growth in facility and building construction. The William and Norma Horvitz Administration Building is a 62,000-square-foot structure that houses the office of the president and numerous other administration departments for the university. The Alvin Sherman Library, Research, and Information Technology Center was completed in 2001 and is the largest public library in the state of Florida. The Carl DeSantis Building houses the H. Wayne Huizenga School of Business and Entrepreneurship and opened its doors in 2004. This $33-million building is a 261,000-square-foot, five-story facility, which is also home to the Graduate School of Computer and Information Sciences.

CARL DESANTIS BUILDING

NSU is the largest independent institution of higher education in the Southeast and the seventh largest independent university nationally, with a fall 2004 enrollment of more than 25,000. It is the largest of the 67 independent institutions in Florida, with an operating budget of approximately $355 million. To date, the institution has produced more than 79,000 alumni. Courses of study lead to associate's, bachelor's, master's, specialist and doctoral degrees. The university's programs are administered through academic centers that offer courses at the Fort Lauderdale campus, as well as at locations throughout Florida; across the nation; and at selected international sites in the Bahamas, Canada, the Dominican Republic, Greece, Jamaica, Mexico, Puerto Rico, the United Kingdom and Venezuela.
