Dear Professor Bassiouni:

Thank you for your letter. I am glad you also found our meeting of November 2 useful. I am also pleased that you are able to remain as Chairman of the Commission until such time as the office of the Prosecutor is up and running and that you are prepared to cooperate with the office of the Prosecutor including making all information available to him.

Thank you also for the "non-paper" which does not make pleasant reading but raises some important questions. I have given copies of it to Bob Rosenstock whom you know and to the Office of the Legal Adviser in the Department of State.

Sincerely,

Madeleine Albright
