Sen Moakley,

Your remark "let the suburbs do something for the cities is rather ignorant for an educated man. Who do you think is paying taxes to support the mft-raff up there? You law makers encouraged these people with handouts. Now live with it. They have ruined your community so now you want to ruin ours.

People move to the suburbs.

at great sacrifice to make decent homes for their children, give them decent educations and walk the streets in safety. We pay dearly for it and are willing. If and when we need low cost housing we want to set it up and we don't need you saps in Beacon Hill to tell us where to put it.
We are now building housing for the elderly without your help or advice

People live where they want.
 The fact that they cling together in the cities is that living is easier and they haven't got the guts to go out on their own. This is what creates slums. It has always been and always will be until you can make laws forcing people to live like human beings instead of pigs. live with.

If living in the suburbs means I'm a snob than

I am as snob and a poor snob at that.
