HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT
Ross Kenneth John McCurdy '98, M.Ed. '02
Educator, Ponaganset High School

Doctor of Pedagogy

Ross K. McCurdy '98, M.Ed. '02 is a science teacher at Ponaganset High School in Gloucester, where he has taught chemistry, alternative energy, physical science and biology for 18 years.

McCurdy was named the 2015 winner of the Presidential Innovation Award for Environmental Educators, granted on behalf of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the White House Council on Environmental Quality. His other honors have included Who's Who among America's Teachers, Rhode Island Earth Day Environmentalist of the Year, the Environmental Council of Rhode Island John H. Chafee Award, the "Renewable Now" Teacher of the Year and the National Environmental Education Foundation Bartlett Merit Award.

Mr. McCurdy developed Ponaganset High School's Alternative Energy program, where students learn about renewable energy through hands-on, minds-on projects. Over the years, he has led students to design and construct a number of fuel-cell-operated vehicles, including a Model T Ford hot rod. He also led his students in the creation of "Protium," a musical band of fuel-cell-operated electric guitars and amplifiers. Along with three students he drove to California and back using biodiesel with the Coast-to-Coast Biodiesel Pickup project. Most recently, Mr. McCurdy and his son completed the first transcontinental flight in U.S. history that used aviation biofuel in a certified light aircraft.

Mr. McCurdy earned a Bachelor of Arts in biology and a Master of Education in science from Rhode Island College. He is a previous winner of the Rhode Island College Alumni Award.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Carolyn Rafaelian

Founder, CEO and Chief Creative Officer, ALEX AND ANI, LLC

Doctor of Fine Arts

Carolyn Rafaelian transformed a family tradition of jewelry making into a worldwide lifestyle brand. Recognized as much for her entrepreneurial spirit and skill as for her goodwill, Ms. Rafaelian learned the craft of jewelry design and production as a young apprentice to her father, who owned Cinerama, a jewelry factory in Cranston. In the time since she launched ALEX AND ANI™ in 2004, the company — named for her first two daughters — has turned heads in both the business and fashion industries.

The ALEX AND ANI collection is MADE IN AMERICA WITH LOVE™ using recycled materials. The designs feature everything from spiritual symbols and charitable partnerships to licensed logos of major sports teams, colleges and universities, and Disney characters. Today, the company has expanded to include a beauty line and handbags.

ALEX AND ANI products deeply reflect Ms. Rafaelian's values, charitable focus and desire to spread positive energy across the globe. To date, ALEX AND ANI via their CHARITY BY DESIGN™ collection has donated over $30 million to charities around the world. Her designs are created with a deep reverence for powerful and sacred symbols that express and inspire awareness, empowerment and inner beauty. Ms. Rafaelian is involved in all facets of her company's operations, particularly its designs and marketing efforts, and maintains close associations with its vendors.

Based in Cranston, the company is a five-time Inc. 5000 honoree. ALEX AND ANI was included on Inc. Magazine's list of fastest-growing U.S. companies in 2012, 2013 and 2014. In 2012, Ms. Rafaelian was named New England Entrepreneur of the Year by Ernst & Young and the Small Business Administration's Rhode Island Small Business Person of the Year.

Ms. Rafaelian studied at the University of Rhode Island and at The American College in London and Los Angeles. She has received honorary degrees from the University of Rhode Island, Providence College, Johnson and Wales University and Mount Ida College.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT
Deloris Davis Grant '88, M.A.T. '94
Educator, Central Falls High School

Doctor of Education

Deloris Davis Grant '88, M.A.T. '94, is an English and drama teacher at Central Falls High School, where she has created a strong community of young writers, readers and speakers while simultaneously building a positive school culture.

Ms. Grant's creative and engaging approach to education began during her undergraduate years at Rhode Island College, where she earned her bachelor's degree in English. Pursuing an advanced degree, she earned a Master of Arts in Teaching at RIC before launching her teaching career. Ms. Grant has served as an English language arts teacher at Central Falls High School since 1997 and has also served as the school's drama coach since 2004. Most recently, she began serving as a Master Teacher for the ELO Musical Chorus, where students create a spring performance showcase in a professional theatre setting.

Ms. Grant has been deeply involved with the Central Falls/Rhode Island College Lab, a mutually beneficial collaboration between the college and the Central Falls public school system. Most recently, she has partnered with RIC Associate Professor of Communication Anthony Galvez to create a documentary about students competing in a Shakespeare Oration Competition.

Prior to her college experience, Ms. Grant graduated from the federal TRiO program Upward Bound, which provides college preparation support for first-generation and low-income high school students. In Rhode Island, the Upward Bound program is housed at RIC. Upon her own Upward Bound graduation and her matriculation to RIC, Ms. Grant went on to serve as a tutor and counselor for the program. Years later, she co-founded the Upward Bound Alumni Scholarship Fund. Ms. Grant is a former Rhode Island College Alumna of the Year and has devoted countless hours over the years in support of her alma mater.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Alan J. Chille '82

General Manager, Providence Performing Arts Center

Doctor of Fine Arts

Alan J. Chille '82 has served as general manager of the Providence Performing Arts Center (PPAC) for 32 years, overseeing $28 million in capital facility improvements during that time and working with the Rhode Island Historic Preservation Commission to maintain PPAC's historic building status. His major responsibilities include the oversight and budgeting for the event and operations departments and developing and executing a capital expenditure plan. He also manages the facilities portion of PPAC's for-profit subsidiary, Professional Facilities Management.

Prior to launching his career at PPAC, Mr. Chille worked at RIC, managing the Rathskellar College Pub, serving as operations manager of the Student Union and overseeing student activities programming. He also worked as concessions manager at the Worcester Centrum, now known as the DCU Center.

He currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Downtown Improvement District, First Works and the Veterans Memorial Auditorium Foundation. Previously, he was a member of the Providence Design Review Commission. He remains active in his college fraternity, Kappa Delta Phi.

Mr. Chille has been very involved in mentoring and creating internships for RIC undergraduates and is a previous recipient of the School of Management Honor Roll Award and the Charles B. Willard Achievement Award. In 2009, he established an endowment, the Alan J. Chille Leadership Excellence Award, to be presented annually to a RIC student who exemplifies what it means to be a leader. A former member of the Rhode Island College Alumni Association, Mr. Chille is a member of the Alumni Awards Committee. He now serves on the Rhode Island College Foundation Board of Directors.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT
Ann-Marie Harrington, M.S.W. '96
President and Founder, Embolden

Doctor of Commercial Science

Ann-Marie Harrington, M.S.W. '96 is an entrepreneur, executive and national speaker on philanthropy, technology and marketing.

Ms. Harrington has over 20 years of experience working with foundations, nonprofits and corporations, and she lends her expertise in new and emerging technologies and online donor engagement strategy.

Ms. Harrington began her career as a social worker. In 1995 she launched her first website. This action led to her founding her own company, Embolden, in 1998. The Pawtucket-based company became a leading digital communication group, specializing in the foundation, financial and nonprofit sectors and managing an international client base. In 2008 Embolden received the Minority Business Enterprise of the Year Award from the State of Rhode Island and was named one of the state's "Best Places to Work" by Providence Business News. In 2014 Crown Philanthropic Solutions acquired Embolden; Ms. Harrington now serves as a partner and executive vice president.

Among the honors Ms. Harrington has garnered in recent years are Rhode Island Small Business Person of the Year from the Small Business Administration, YWCA Northern Rhode Island's Women of Achievement Award and a Providence Business News "Woman to Watch" designation.

Ms. Harrington has served on a variety of nonprofit boards and is currently on the boards of the Rhode Island Commodores and the Rhode Island Foundation. She earned a degree in business administration from Bryant University and a Master of Social Work degree from Rhode Island College.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT
Claire M. Giannamore '64, M.Ed. '67
Educator and Philanthropist

Doctor of Humanities

Few alumni have demonstrated a stronger and more consistent commitment to their alma mater than Claire M. Giannamore '64, M.Ed. '67.

After earning her bachelor's degree in education from Rhode Island College, Ms. Giannamore worked as a teacher while pursuing her Master of Education in counseling, also from RIC. She then worked at RIC, first as an admissions officer and as an assistant director, representing RIC in the community for over a dozen years.

While she concluded her admissions career in 1980 in order to pursue corporate real estate investing, Ms. Giannamore never really left RIC. She served as a board member and a trustee of the Rhode Island College Foundation for many years. For 14 years she also served as a board member of the Shinn Study Abroad Fund, which provides RIC students with immersive cultural experiences in other countries. Active on a number of committees, Ms. Giannamore chaired the 25th anniversary for the Shinn Fund as well as the 50th Reunion Committee for the Class of 1964. She is a previous winner of the RIC Alumna of the Year Award.

Ms. Giannamore is also a valuable fundraiser for the college; she most recently gifted the college a small island in Narragansett Bay.

In the greater Rhode Island Community, Giannamore is known for her work with the Italian American Historical Society of Rhode Island, of which she is a past president. She also serves on the board of directors of Il Circolo of Florida, where she currently resides.

THE RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE SEAL

The official Rhode Island College seal (adopted in 1960) incorporates the anchor, a symbol of hope and of the state of Rhode Island, with the founding of the institution in 1854. The seal was designed by Edith C. Becker, professor emerita of art, who adapted the central flame symbol from the Holbrook Murals in the foyer of Roberts Hall. The flame is used in the murals to depict the energy that has, over the ages, supported the development of all living things and has led civilization to its highest intellectual achievements. In like manner, the flame in the Rhode Island College seal stands for the life of the body and the life of the mind, symbolizing the human and intellectual goals and achievements of Rhode Island College.

THE DEL SESTO MACE

At the 1959 commencement exercises, the first held on the present Mount Pleasant campus, Governor Christopher Del Sesto presented to Rhode Island College a bronze replica of the statue of the Independent Man so that the college, which since 1898 had been located near the State House, might continue its tradition of holding commencements and other academic convocations in the presence of the Independent Man. The Del Sesto Mace, designed by the noted Rhode Island sculptor Aristide Cianfarani and crafted by the Gorham Company, has been in use since 1962 in all academic processions as a symbol of tradition and authority, as well as commitment to the search for truth, knowledge, beauty, values and learning.

THE WILLARD MEDALLION

The Willard Medallion is a symbol of the office of the president and is worn at official and ceremonial functions. The medallion is appended to a presidential chain that bears the names of the chief executive officers who have led Rhode Island College since 1973. The Rhode Island College Alumni Association commissioned silversmith Curtis K. LaFollette, then a professor of art at the college, to design the medallion and chain in commemoration of the inauguration of Charles Borromeo Willard as the first alumnus to be named president of Rhode Island College.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

The caps, gowns and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students used them to keep warm in medieval castles and halls of learning. This formal apparel now symbolizes scholarly achievement.

Baccalaureate gowns have a long, pleated front with shirring across the shoulders and back. The gowns are primarily distinguished by flowing sleeves, pointed at the fingertips, and may be worn either open or closed. The master's gown is worn open, and the sleeve is cut so that the forearm comes through a slit just above the elbow. The doctor's gown has rounded sleeves and velvet panels around the neck and down the front of the gown, as well as three velvet bars on the sleeves. In recent years American universities have followed the custom of European institutions of selecting doctoral gowns in the color of the university. Mortar boards or caps worn with baccalaureate and master's gowns generally have black tassels. The tassel of the doctoral cap is usually made of gold bullion.

The hood gives color and real meaning to the academic costume. Its silk lining bears the colors of the institution conferring the degree. The hood is bordered with velvet of a prescribed width and color to indicate the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

COLLEGE COLORS

Rhode Island College's colors are gold and white, taken from the Rhode Island state flag. In 1986 burgundy was added as an accent color.
