THE HUMAN PRAYER.

FROM "THE CHOIR INVISIBLE."

[EDITORIAL NOTE: Mr. Thaddeus B. Wakeman, a well-known agitator of liberalism and a leader in the ranks of humanitarian reform, sends us a prayer which has been formulated to replace the Lord's Prayer of Christianity. He makes the following comments with regard to it:

"If it is anything at all, it is really the most important thing put in print for a very long time. It is the scientific solution many are after—but so simple and comprehensive, that it will have to be grown to or towards gradually. It is too immense to be readily grasped."

In giving publicity to this prayer in the columns of The Open Court we do not imply that we deem it adequate to fill the place for which it has been intended, either with respect to the ideas which it contains or the form in which they are expressed. As to those matters we leave it to the reader to form his own verdict.]

The prayer reads as follows:

O World, O Man, and Soul of Me— The Endless All, Our Three in One! O let me live with love and joy— In Thee—In Thee!

So may I do for human kind All each should do in turn for me; So Duty meet with honest deeds And noblest mind.

O let me learn to know The True, So that my life may do The Good,— So that my work may fruitful be The Ages through!

Thus may my Will as Thine be done, And so fulfil our highest end— As I in Thee shall ever live, And work as ONE!

So bring our Republic of MAN, Our Paradise of Earth to be, For Each and All—for Me and All, As best we can! So on and on!—For evermore, Amen—Amen.

Mr. Wakeman explains the "Me" of the first line as follows: "The 1 or Me is our subjective consciousness or 'Ego,' which the objective World, Man, and Sonl—the unconscious or 'sub-liminal' action of our nerve-system—constantly beget, create and sustain; or which attends that objective Three as a 'concomitant correlation.'"

THE SAME PRAYER
In more metrical form,
By A Poet.
O World, O Man, and Soul of Me—
The Endless All; our Holy Three!
I live and love in work and joy,
With Thee—in Thee!

So may my life to all give meed, As other lives supply my need. To all I dedicate my all, In thought and deed.

O let me learn to know the True, So that the Good my hand may do— That what is life to me shall live The ages through.

O may my will as thine be done— Thy will and mine so closely spun That in the pattern of the years We shall be one.

So come our splendid reign of Man Our Paradise of Earth to plan— For Each and All; for Me and All. Amen, Amen.

BOOK REVIEWS AND NOTES.

Traité des assurances sur la vie. Avec developpements sur le calcul des probabilités. Par Prof. U, Broggi. Paris: A. Hermann, 1907. Pp. 306. M. S. Lattès has translated into French Professor Broggi's "Treatise on Life Insurance and Its Explanations as Based on the Calculation of Probabilities," which has been published in Paris by the Librairie Hermann. It is prefaced by M. Achard, who commends the book as especially useful. It contains the mathematical and statistic foundations of theory, the fundamental problems of the mathematical theory of life insurance, the technicalities of life insurance, and the theory of risk.
