By Sarah Cahalan, Director of the Marian Library

The Marian Library served as a movie set recently, when we welcomed a crew to film the reading room, photograph some artifacts, and speak with researchers about how they use the collection. The key takeaway, in my opinion, is how welcome researchers from all walks of life are to use this collection. Undergraduate graphic design major? Advanced scholar in theology? Member of the public with an interest in Our Lady? We have resources for all of these people.
