O Catháin, Séamas, "The Festival of Brigit the Holy Woman," Celtica 23 (1999), 231–260.

This volume of Celtica honors the memory of James Patrick Carney. The focus of the contributions is Old Irish literature; feminist analysis appears to be absent. Andrew Breeze's, "The Blessed Virgin and the Sunbeam Through Glass," 19–29, and John Carey's "Transmutations of Immortality in 'The Lament of the Old Woman of Beare'," 30–37 do discuss the development of literary images carried by female figures. There may be more of this sort of contribution, but one would have to be familiar with Old Irish language and literature to spot them.
